*Our lives gon on without you
But nothing is the same
We have to hide our heartache
When someone speaks your name
Sad are the hearts that love you
Silent are the tears that fall
Living without you is the hardest part of all
You did so namy things for us
Your heart was king and true
And when we needed someone
We could always count on you
The special years will not return
When we are all together
But with the love in our hearts
You walk with us forever*

Obituary of Mr. Eddie Sanders, Jr.

Mr. Eddie Sanders, Jr., affectionately known as “Boy,” was born August 1, 1944, in St. Matthews South Carolina. He was the son of the late Eddie Sanders, Sr. and Almeta Duckson Sanders. Eddie departed this life on Sunday, May 5, 2024 at Rice Estates.

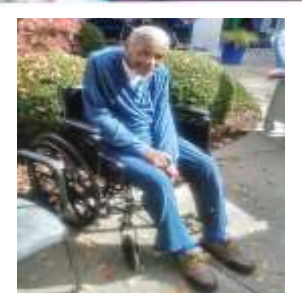

Mr. Sanders was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. After high school, he enlisted in the United States Army. When his tour of service ended, Eddie returned to Columbia, South Carolina and became employed with Pacific Mills until they closed.

Mr. Sanders was given the name “Boy” by his father because they both have the same name. He was a “Jack of All Trades”. He was a plumber, electrician, roofer, he also did income taxes, but most of all he loved repairing cars and racing cars. He loved a fast car. Eddie enjoyed watching Westerns and listening to Sam Cooke.

In addition to his parents, Eddie was preceded in death by his brothers, Mack Howard Duckson, Thommie Sanders, and Tyrone Cornelius Sanders.

Mrs. Eddie Sanders, Jr. leaves to mourn his passing: his wife, Mattie Brodrick Sanders; sons, Jerome Sanders, Eddie Sanders (Lawanna), and Marcus Goodwin; daughters, Tiara Sanders and Idella Glover; sisters, Bernice Heyward (George, Floretta Tucker, Cathey Sanders, Inez Sanders, and Alfreda Fanning (Tony); a host of other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
