Don't

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh,
To love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

Mr. Frank Allen Dickerson was born on February 10, 1954, in Charleston, South Carolina. He was the only son of the late Herbert Patterson and Lillie Mae Dickerson. He departed this life on Tuesday, June 18, 2024.

After graduating from St. John's High School in 1972, he graduated from Trident Technical College in 1974. He moved to Columbia, South Carolina to pursue his career at South Carolina Electric & Gas, where he worked for 47 years.

He was a member of Abundant Life Church in Columbia, South Carolina. There he met his wife, and later, he attended Right Direction Christian Center.

Frank was a deeply beloved father, son, cousin, uncle, and friend. Those who knew Frank described him as generous, kind, and outgoing.

Always an entrepreneur at heart, Frank collected antiques, sold cars, and supported many local small businesses in Columbia. Frank enjoyed fixing classic cars, supporting his South Carolina Gamecocks in any sport, and listening to 60's and 70's music on vinyl.

He was preceded to heaven by: his mother, Lillie Mae Dickerson; his father, Herbert Patterson; his wife, Vanetta Dickerson; and his son, Allen Bristol.

Mr. Frank Allen Dickerson is survived by: his son, Denton Dickerson (Kendyl), of Raleigh, North Carolina; his daughter, DeAnna Dickerson, of Cayce, SC; and many others loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly. May he rest in peace.
