

Obituary

Mrs. Wanda Elaine Jones Hollis was born on July 5, 1958, in LaRochelle, Germany. She was the first-born daughter of the late Sergeant Elijah and Marilyn Jones. She peacefully departed this earthly life on Thursday, June 6, 2024.

Wanda was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, and was proud graduate of Eau Claire High School Class of 1976. After graduation, she married her high school sweetheart, Ricky D. Hollis, together the two traveled until they eventually settled back home in South Carolina. She then embarked on a successful career in the textiles industry.

She was known to be the life of the party. Wanda had a very special knack for lighting up the room and making people laugh, especially with her infamous dance move, "The Worm." Wanda's personality, big heart, and genuine spirit are just a few reasons she was so greatly loved and will never be forgotten.

In addition to her parents, Wanda was preceded in death by six sisters, Infant Jones, Brenda, Michelle, Bridegette, Mia, and Cynthia; one niece, Taylor Amari.

Mrs. Wanda Elaine Jones Hollis, leaves to cherish her very precious memory: her best friend and one and only son, Tyler Elijah Jones; her heartstring and one and only grandson, Tyler Elijah Jones II whom she affectionately called her Humpin Dumpin; two loving brothers, Barry Jones and Mario Jones; one devoted sister, Chasity Jones; eight nieces and nephews, Neki (Mauricio) Richardson, Shamael Coit, Korey (Hope) Coit, Mario Jones, Bridegette Jones, Jamal Corbitt, Brandon Jones, and Marquis English; nine great-nieces and great-nephews; one brother-in-law, Reverend Fred W. Coit; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*
