

To everything there is a season, and a time for every matter or purpose under heaven:

- ² A time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to pluck up what is planted,
³ A time to kill and a time to heal, a time to break down and a time to build up,
⁴ A time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,
⁵ A time to cast away stones and a time to gather stones together, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
⁶ A time to get and a time to lose, a time to keep and a time to cast away,
⁷ A time to rend and a time to sew, a time to keep silence and a time to speak,
⁸ A time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

² In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

⁴ And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

⁵ Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

⁶ Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

John 14:1-6

Obituary

On June 9, 2024, Mr. Donald Joseph Saur passed away at the age of 65. He was born to the late James Donald Saur and Sandra Steindle on May 25, 1959.

Donald was a resident with South Carolina Mentor, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was a burst of fun. Donald was a wise and loving man. He enjoyed talking about his times riding motorcycles, memories of good times in New York, his favorite foods and restaurants, and bowling. Donald loved the simple things in life. He enjoyed sitting out on the back porch/patio with his peers and staff and indulging in good food. Donald also enjoyed informing everyone that he knew everything. He lived a precious life. Donald was a beautiful soul that brought light to everyone he encountered.

In addition to his parents, Donald was preceded in death by his brother, Karl Saur and sister, Janice Saur.

Mr. Donald Joseph Saur is survived by two sons, Donald George Saur (41) and Joseph Brian Saur (38); his two grandchildren, Kaylen Elizabeth (13) and Colin Saur (2). He is also survived by his peers, staff and the administrative team of South Carolina Mentor, in Columbia, South Carolina, all who will miss his warm smile and adventurous filled conversations.

God Saw You Getting Tired
God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Prayer of Comfort

You hold time within your hands and see it all from the beginning to end. Please keep and carry these precious people in their sadness and loss. Cover them with your great wings of love, give their weary hearts rest and their minds sound sleep. Lord, lift their eyes so that they may catch a glimpse of eternity, and be comforted by the promise of heaven. We ask all this in the precious name of Jesus. Amen
