Tucker

A fisher of thrills, no man could imagine,
A father's love, igniting seven passions.
Flawed, yet steadfast and true,
His compassion radiated brightly,
Through lives he touched,
A legacy of love from the depths of his heart.
Though his story now ends, his legacy
lives on,
In the hearts of those he cherished, never gone.

Obituary

Mr. Tom Henry Tucker, born on September 4, 1955, to Florie and Leo Tucker, will be remembered by all who knew him. Tom was a cherished member of the Harlem Heights community and enriched the lives of many around him. His passion for fishing and his die-hard support for the LA Rams brought him immense joy.

Raised and educated in Columbia, SC, Tom attended Keenan High School. Early in life, he honed his skills to become a master electrician. His electrical career spanned decades, working with various companies and as an independent contractor. He worked on many notable projects, including those for Benedict College and the Fireflies Stadium. Tom was known for his keen intellect, kindness, generosity, and unwavering support for his loved ones.

Tom was preceded in death by his parents; his brothers, Richard Clay and Sammie Lee Tucker; sisters, Georgia Tucker and Cora Lee Tucker; and nephew Charles Clay.

His memory will forever be in the hearts of his surviving family: daughters, LaSandra Teixeira, Niesha Butler (Brian), and Bridgit Tucker; sons, Tommy Smith (Lydia), Tom “Jason” Tucker, Justin Smith (Allyson), and Tommy Lindler; nine grandchildren, Donovan, Elijah, Timothy, Justin, Taylor, Tomiah, Noah, Ebony, and Londyn; his loving sisters, Mary E. Clay, Louise Sacco, Ella Minor, Martha Ann (Tina) Tucker and Emma Taylor a dear niece Gloria Brunson “JD,” along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and lifelong friends who will deeply miss him.

Tom’s legacy of love, friendship, and dedication, along with his joy for fishing, will be fondly remembered by all who knew him. He found peace and solace in the simple pleasures of life and cherished his local community.
