No Tears in Heaven

*There are no tears in heaven, no grief of any kind.
I leave this final teardrop to those I've left behind.
Though absent from the body, I'm present with the Lord.
The joy of my salvation is now my full reward.
And just as God has promised, He's wiped my tears away,
and nothing can compare to the wonder of that day.
So, keep me in your memory and know that up above,
there are no tears in Heaven, instead there's only love.*

Obituary

Mr. Linzie Carter was born on May 29, 1950, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Charlie Carter, Jr. and Evelyn E. Cunningham Carter. Linzie departed his life on Friday, July 26, 2024.

A man of deep compassion and unwavering dedication, Linzie was known for his affectionate nature and his commitment to putting others first. Throughout his life, he maintained a strong connection to his roots, having attended the public schools of Columbia, South Carolina.

After moving to Manhattan, New York, Linzie became renowned for his giving spirit and witty sense of humor. He was a faithful member of the Fellowship Baptist Church, where he was always ready to lend a helping hand and offer words of comfort. Linzie's warm personality and generous heart touched many lives, and his passing leaves a void in the community and amongst those who knew him.

Linzie enjoyed a variety of hobbies, including cheering for the USC Gamecocks, walking, sightseeing, thrifting, and spendy quality time at family gatherings. These activities reflected his love for life and the joy he found in simple pleasures.

In addition to his parents, Linzie was preceded in death by three sisters, Edna Y. Carter, Mary L. Stokes, and Dorothy G. Carter; and one brother, Wilbur Carter.

He is survived by: Patricia C. Strother, Louvenia Carter, Ethel C. Gadson, Norma J. Carter, Gloria J. Taylor (Eddie), Tommy Carter, and Benjamin Carter (Martha); and a host of beloved nieces and nephews.
