Ms. Peggy Sumter Jackson

Ms. Peggy Sumter Jackson was born on January 18, 1969, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the youngest child of Thomas W. Sumter, Sr. and Cathrine Sumter. She departed this life on Tuesday, July 2, 2024.

Peggy was educated in the public school of Richland County, South Carolina and graduated from Lower Richland High School, Class of 1987. She had an extensive professional career spanning over three decades. She most recently devoted more than 12 years as a Human Resource Administrator for ADT Security of South Carolina. She enjoyed creating things with her own hands which led her to pursue several passions. Peggy enjoyed flower and vegetable gardening, crocheting, experimenting with new and fresh ideas in the kitchen and baking any number of delicious desserts. She was a warm and comforting presence that lived by the mantras “Attitude is the little thing that makes a big difference ; Happiness is not by chance, but by choice”.

Peggy was baptized at an early age, at St. John Baptist Church, later becoming a member of Brookland Baptist Church for over 30 years, where she served on the Usher Board.

She was preceded in death by both her parents, Catherine and Thomas W. Sumter, Sr.

Peggy leaves to cherish her life’s memory: her son, Shane Jackson, of Hopkins, South Carolina; her brother, Thomas W. Sumter, Jr. of Columbia, South Carolina; two aunts, Ira Mae Jackson (Irvin) of Gadsden, South Carolina and Esther Sumter of Hopkins, South Carolina, two uncles, Minister Ervin L. Barnes (Cynthia) of Columbia, South Carolina and Marion Michael Sumter (Gwendolyn) of Charlotte, North Carolina; one great-aunt, Ira Mae Robinson Patterson of Eastover, South Carolina; two nieces; two nephews; many other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

My Mother's Guiding Light

Here are a few of the many passages from the NLT Bible that my mother consistently drew strength from. I pray that you too will find life and joy in these words as they grant me peace and understanding in this time of grief.

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance. Prophecy and speaking in unknown languages and special knowledge will become useless. But love will last forever!

I Corinthians 13:4-8

Psalms 25:1-5, 30:5, 141:1-4

Isaiah 8:11-13, 40:29-31

I John 4:4

Hebrews 4:16

I Peter 1:7-9, 5:6-11

James 1:5-6, 19-20, 23

Phillipians 4:6-9

Proverbs 3:5-8
