

He Had To Leave

"That's my boy!" was my term of endearment, for our little brother Cameron Tyler Reid, God called him home, so he had to leave.

We watched as he became a man, as his presence became larger than life. He was striking with a smile big and bright, yet bold and fearless. I know there's a place in our hearts he will always hold, where the memories of him should be engraved in gold.

If Cam could speak, I think he would say don't cry for me, I did it God's way. My flesh and my heart failed, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. Ps 73:26. Therefore, from your hearts, I will leave you never. Through God, we will always be together.

Cam left an impression on anyone he would meet. He was kind and loving, yet in all his boldness, he remained meek. Cam had a personality out this world! He gave all he had to give as a son, grandson, brother, an uncle, and a friend, but his greatest role was as a father until his end.

Cam loved to cook and share his skill with anyone who would eat...to see the pleasure on their faces is what he seek. ... He enjoyed riding four wheelers and dirt bikes. If you saw Cam that means Pat was near. He loved to laugh and make you smile....yes, he was our golden child, he couldn't do no wrong. he kept us all together somehow. He found away to make us all feel special, by spending quality time with each and every one of us. Cameron Tyler Reid was a definite plus. He will be missed, by all those he touched.

As we fight back these tears that we cry, it's time for us to say our final good byes...So Cam, fly, fly home, and take your rest, as we take solace in knowing you were one of the best.

YES "That's our boy," our brother Cameron Tyler Reid. God called him home, so he had to leave.

Cam we love you forever!
Love,
Tiarah, Essence, Patrick, and Ryan

Obituary of Mr. Cameron Tyler Reid

Mr. Cameron Tyler Reid, affectionately known as “Cam” was born on January 4, 1996, to proud parents, Marci Taylor and Larry Patrick Reid, Sr. He departed this earthly life on the evening of July 5, 2024, to be with his heavenly Father in Alvin, South Carolina.

At an early age, Cam attended (formerly) Alice Temple Church, now Refuge Temple. He attended several schools within the Berkeley County Public School system, including St. Stephen Elementary and Middle School, Macedonia Middle School, Timberland High School and Berkeley High School, ultimately receiving his GED.

Cam enjoyed the outdoors. He loved fishing, hunting, riding his 4-wheeler and dirt bike. Cam had a passion for cooking and enjoyed working alongside his brother, Patrick. Together, they operated the Mac Food Truck. Additionally, Cam relished attending family functions, birthdays, reunions, and other family events. His cousins held a special place in his heart; they were like brothers and sisters to him. Cam was on the Cross Road every day. Above all, he cherished moments spent with his immediate family, especially his son, CJ.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Albert Reid, Nancy McCoy and Walter Taylor, Sr.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his son, Cameron James (CJ) Tyler Reid; his parents, Larry and Marci Taylor Reid, of Bonneau, SC; two sisters, Tiarah (Alonzo) Ramsey of Summerville, SC and Essence (Derrell) Kinard of Spartanburg, SC; two brothers, Larry Patrick Reid, Jr. and Ryan Timothy Reid, both of Bonneau, SC; his nieces and nephews, Lariah, Lairra, Maci Madison, MaKenzie, Amari, Aaliyah, Dillian, Preston and Carter; his grandmother, Wilma Greene Taylor, of Alvin, SC; two aunts, Wanda Greene Jackson, of Columbia, SC and Celeste Reid of NC; six uncles, Allen (Gwen) Reid of GA, Everett (Martise) Reid of GA, John (Tamara) Reid of Baltimore, MD, Timothy (Tara) Reid of Fayetteville, NC, Minister Walter (Twanda) Taylor, Jr. of Blythewood, SC and Elder Derrick (Pam) Greene of Albany, GA; Aanyis Haley, who was like a daughter; an abundance of other great-aunts, great-uncles, a host of other family members and friends, all who will miss him dearly.
