I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-

God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

Mr. Edward Palmer was born on March 8, 1961, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Louise Palmer. Edward departed this earthly life at the age of 63, on Monday, August 26, 2024, at Prisma Health Baptist Hospital, in Columbia, South Carolina after a hard battle with cancer.

Edward was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, attending Fairwold Elementary and Fairwold Junior High. He dedicated his life to various trades, excelling as a construction worker, painter, and electrician. Edward's hard-working, kindhearted, generous, and loving nature were all evident in both his personal and professional life.

In addition to his mother, Edward was preceded in death by his siblings, Dianna Stroman, Mary Bell, Hazel Harkless, and James Palmer.

Edward was a devoted and loving husband to Betty Sumter Palmer for 48 years and a cherished father of one son, Edward Sumter, and daughters, Donte, Nichelle, and Louise Sumter. He was also the proud grandfather of Matthew Sumter.
