*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Clarence Reginald Ruff, a long-time resident of the Columbia, South Carolina area, died peacefully at home on Tuesday, August 13, 2024. Clarence was born in Columbia, SC on October 17, 1956, to the late Melvin G. and Wilhelmina F. Ruff.

Clarence graduated from A.C. Flora High School in 1974. He worked at Richland Memorial Hospital in Columbia, SC for 15 years. Clarence went on to work for a custodial company for 35 years. He was a big fan of football and baseball. His favorite teams were the L. A. Rams and the Atlanta Braves.

Clarence was preceded in death by his parents, and a brother, Willie J. Ruff.

Clarence leaves to cherish his memories and mourn his passing: sister, Melvina R. Lewis of Loris, SC; brothers, Theodore E. Ruff of Fresno, CA, Cedric K. (Stephanie) Ruff and Darryle F. Ruff both of Columbia, SC, and other loving relatives and friends whose lives he touched and will miss him dearly.
