ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of Mother Florine Capers Williams would like to express our heart-felt gratitude for the sincere expressions of love shown to us by our family and friends. The outpouring of prayers, calls, text messages, posts, visits, cards and gifts have truly blessed our hearts. A special thank you to Pastor Darrell Jackson, the entire Bible Way Church of Atlas Road Family and the entire Leevy's Funeral Home. May the blessings of God be upon you all.

REFLECTIONS OF THE LIFE OF

Mother Florine Capers Williams

Mother Florine Capers Williams, affectionately known as Mother Williams, was born on December 16, 1932, in Eastover, South Carolina, to the late Grant Bruce Capers and Evelina Morgan Capers. She went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, August 3, 2024.

Mother Williams was educated in the public schools of Richland County. She was employed as a domestic worker for over 35 years prior to retiring.

Mother Williams' service to the Lord began at St. Luke AME Church under the leadership of Pastor Willie Tucker. Her service to the Kingdom of God continued at the following churches: Unity Evangelistic Church, Dr. Julia M. Lakin; Good Shepherd Holiness Church, Mother Louella Higgs; New Birth Ministries, Pastor Michael Brown, and Bible Way Church of Atlas Road, Pastor Darrell Jackson. She was also a Church Mother at the Bible Way Church of Atlas Road. She thoroughly enjoyed fellowshiping and spending time with the mothers until her health began to decline.

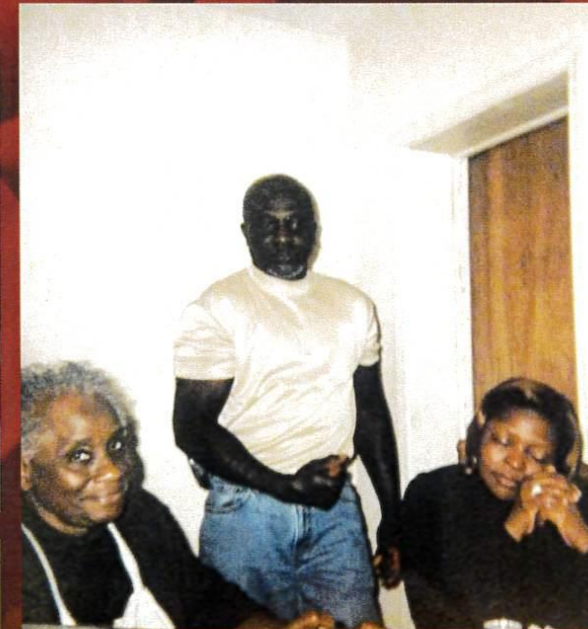

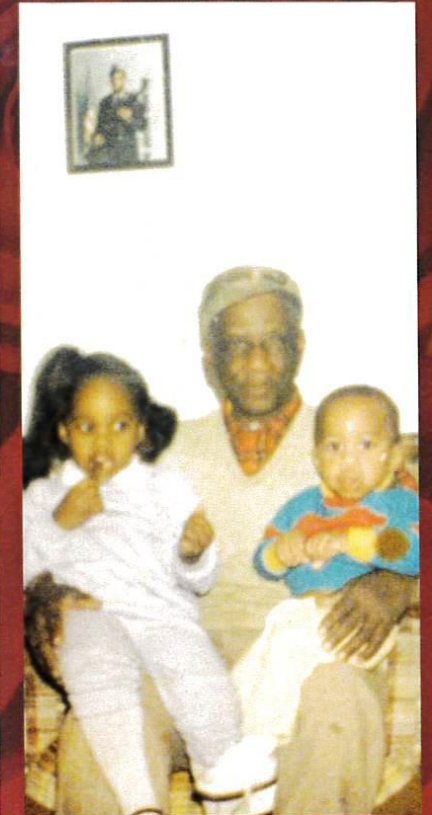

After years of much prayer and fasting, the Lord granted her heart's desire. She prayed that her children would accept the Lord Jesus as their personal Savior and serve Him faithfully. She supported the ministry of her son, Pastor Thomas "Tommy" Williams, Sr., of Word Alive Ministries.

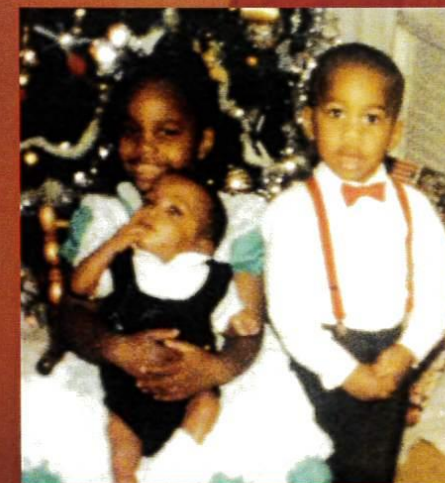

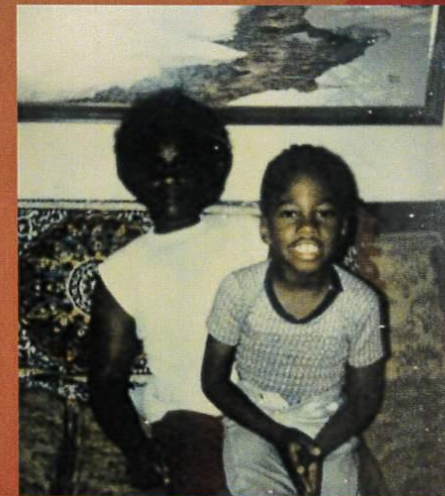

Mother Williams was an anointed woman of God and a prayer warrior. She loved God's people, and they were drawn to her by the anointing on her life, infectious smile and loving hugs. She firmly believed that as a believer she was called to make a difference in the lives of other people by sharing the love of God.

Her gift of cooking was an extension of the many spiritual gifts God entrusted to her. She was a good steward with that gift and used it to feed as many people as she could. No one ever left her house hungry.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her stepmother, Mary Capers; brothers, Wallace Capers, Isaiah Capers, Sam Capers, Willie Capers and Odell Long; sisters, Jannie Roberson, Annie Mae Williams and Leola Johnson.

Mother Williams leaves to cherish her memory: a daughter, Evangelist Cynthia M. Brown of the home; a son, Pastor Thomas "Tommy" Williams (Elder Frances Williams) of Columbia, South Carolina; two bonus sons, Mayor James Faber (Elvira Faber) and Councilman Leroy Faber, both of Eastover, South Carolina; three brothers, Ervin Capers (Machelle Long), Deacon Douglas Long (Minister Deloris Long) and Donald Keith Long, all of Eastover, South Carolina; two sisters, Beatrice Long of Eastover, South Carolina and Robbie Thompson of West Columbia, South Carolina; three grandchildren, Minister Kristen Williams (Michael Washington), Thomas "TJ" Williams, Jr., and Samuel Williams all of Columbia, South Carolina; two great grandchildren, Logan Ellison Williams and Haley Grace Williams, both of Columbia, South Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

BROKEN CHAIN

Little did we know the day that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.
