

Obituary

Mrs. Georgiann Barnes Williams was born on October 27, 1923, in Aiken, South Carolina. She was the cherished daughter of the late Allen and Leila Barnes. She peacefully entered eternal rest with her Savior, Jesus Christ, on Thursday, August 22, 2024, at Millennium Post-Acute Rehabilitation Center.

Educated within her local school district, Georgiann devoted her life to being a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She found joy in reading her bible, sharing stories, and dancing. Her warmth, candor, and willingness to speak her mind will always be remembered fondly.

Georgiann was preceded in death by her husband, Bennie Williams, Sr.; her parents, Allen and Leila Barnes; her siblings, Rim Barnes, Will Barnes, Frank Barnes, Sam Barnes, Mammie Barnes, Alice Barnes, Addie Ware, and Rose Mae Mayo; her son, Grant Williams; daughters, Lessie Williams, JoAnn Williams Young, and Hazel Lee Williams; and by several beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by her sons, Bennie (Alberta) Williams, Jr., Woodrow Williams, Sr., Emmanuel (Jean) Williams, Jail Williams, Marion (Shirley) Williams, and Darryl (Carolyn) Williams, Sr.; her daughter, Delores (Theodore) Bates. Georgiann also leaves behind three generations of grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, and friends, all of whom will deeply miss her presence.

I Am Always with You

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess how much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

but now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must

Then let your grief be comforted by trust that it is only for a while that we must part,
so treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear

All my love around you soft and clear

And then, when you come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."
