God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Obituary

Mr. Alan Keith Barrow was born to the late Albert O'Keith Barrow, Jr. and Eartha Lee Barrow, in New York, New York on December 19, 1965. Alan transitioned on Wednesday, September 25, 2024.

Keith was educated in both Lutheran and public schools of New York City, graduating from Springfield Gardens High School. After graduating, Keith attended Queensborough College in 1983. Keith worked for more than 30 years as a manager at various locations in New York. Later in life he relocated to Columbia, SC and made an opportunity for himself as a club manager at "Sidepockets." Keith's true passion was to become an entrepreneur. He and a few of his friends started a clothing line called D' Vision.

Keith was a cancer survivor for 26 years and faced a multitude of other major health complications that derived from his previous illness.

On December 30, 2013, Keith married and later divorced Maureen Ellis. Their union was blessed with two daughters, Alana T. Barrow and Asiyah R. Barrow.

Mr. Alan Keith Barrow leaves to cherish his loving memory: two daughters, Alana Barrow and Asiyah Barrow; mother, Eartha Lee Houser Barrow; sister, Victoria Barrow-Legree; his girlfriend, Valerie Ransaw; nephews, Venson Brandon Legree and Brian M. Legree, Jr.; special friends of over 50 years, Peter Ellis, Cyril Prescott, and Pete Free; a host of loving cousins and friends.
