

Obituary of Mr. Theodore Eugene Brown

Mr. Theodore Eugene Brown was born July 11, 1941, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the youngest son of the late Lincoln F. Brown and Mamie C. Boyd Brown. He departed this life on Wednesday, September 11, 2024.

Theodore was educated in the public school system of Richland County, South Carolina. He attended C.A. Johnson High School, where he was a member of the football team. He worked in the ancient trade of butchery.

Mr. Brown was baptized at an early age at First Calvary Baptist Church, where he was a member of The Boy Scouts and participated in many youth programs.

In addition to his parents, Lincoln and Mammie Brown, Theodore was preceded in death by his siblings, Thomas and Lincoln, Jr.; and his beloved, sister Dorothy Annette.

Mr. Theodore Eugene Brown leaves to cherish his memory: his nephews, Anthony (Arlisa) Jones and Henry Earl T. (Kenyatta) Jones, Jr. both of Columbia, South Carolina; cousin, James Allen Baker, of Columbia, South Carolina; great-nephews and great-nieces, Joshua of Rock Hill, South Carolina, Isaiah, Joseph, Kejuan, Jeremiah, Jewel, and Jaylynn, all of Columbia, South Carolina; a host of other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.
