Order of Service of Mr. Troy Allen Moore II

Mr. Troy Allen Moore II was born May 29, 2008, in Columbia, SC to Troy A. Moore and Shawna Adams Moore. He departed this earthly life on Saturday, August 31, 2024, at MUSC Northeast Columbia to spend eternity with God.

Troy, affectionately known as TJ, was a vibrant and charismatic young man who touched many lives with his enthusiasm and kindness. A junior at Blythewood High School, Troy was an active and beloved member of both the varsity basketball and varsity football teams. His love for sports began early, as he played AAU basketball with the SC Souljas and started his journey with the the Richland County Recreation League.

From a young age, Troy's life was guided by his faith. He was baptized by his father at James Chapel Baptist Church, where he served as an usher, sang in the youth choir, and attended Sunday School. His commitment to his faith continued at Bethlehem Baptist Church, and Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church, where he found joy and community in his church activities.

Troy's educational journey began at St. John Baptist Church Preschool, where he was honored as "MAY DAY" King. He continued his education at the Center for Inquiry (CFI) Elementary School, Dent Middle School, where he was a proud member of the Blue Diamond Football team, the Blue Diamond Basketball Team, and the Junior Beta Club. Troy took great pride in his nearly perfect attendance and making the honor roll, reflecting his dedication and enthusiasm for learning.

Known for his warm spirit, Troy's main goal was to spread love, joy, and smiles to everyone he encountered. He enjoyed spending time with his basketball and football brothers, cherishing the bonds he formed with his teammates and friends.

Troy leaves behind a loving family who will cherish his memory: his devoted parents, Troy Allen and Shawna Adams Moore; his beloved sister, Sydni; his grandparents, William and Ora Moore, Cynthia Gore Leonard (Michael), and Fredrick Adams (Gwen); his cherished younger cousin, Chrystopher Taylor, who was more like a brother to him; a host of aunts, uncles, and close relatives. Troy's presence will be deeply missed, but his Godly spirit and the love he shared will remain in the hearts of those who knew him.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.
