

“A Letter from Heaven”

*When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
All filled without tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart;
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*

Reflection of the Life of Mrs. Ida Anderson Randolph

Our beloved, Ida Mae Anderson Randolph, entered a peaceful rest, Thursday, September 5, 2024, at her residence in Columbia, South Carolina. She was born on February 8, 1947, in Hopkins, South Carolina and was the daughter of the late Willie, Sr. and Millie Mack Anderson. “Mae” as she was fondly known, enjoyed life and enjoyed meeting people. Her presence is no longer of this earth, but her memory will remain in our hearts through eternity.

Ida was a baptized and accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She was a faithful former member of Zion Benevolent Baptist Church, Hopkins, South Carolina, where she was a former member of the Usher Board Ministry and ZBBC Nightingales. She later joined First Nazareth Baptist Church, Columbia, South Carolina, where she was able to enjoy the spirited services and other church programs.

She attended the Richland County public schools and graduated from the historic Hopkins High School, Hopkins, South Carolina, in 1964. She furthered her studies at Midlands Technical College and received her associate’s degree in business. Ida worked in the textile industry for many years, before joining the South Carolina State Board of Insurance Services; serving many entities across the state as the Benefits Counselor, until she retired in 2012.

In her leisure, Ida enjoyed reading and doing crossword puzzles. She loved her children and granddaughter unconditionally and always wanted the best for them.

Her parents; son, Kenneth J. Randolph; her siblings: Ruben Anderson, Willie Anderson Sr., John Anderson, Larkin Anderson Sr., Fannie Anderson Weston and Willie Harris; and a brother-in-law, Walter “Pete” Montgomery all welcomed Ida to her heavenly home.

Her life will forever be cherished and remembered by her son, Tyron J. Randolph; her precious granddaughter, Gabriella Randolph; special friend, Robert Taylor; a brother, Robert (Regina) Anderson; three sisters, Mary Jane Montgomery, Millie (Solomon) Foulks, and Linda (Anthony) Metz; five sisters-in-law, Muriel Anderson, Lula S. Anderson, Louise Anderson, Julia Anderson, and Gussie Harris; extended family, Mario Taylor, Delton (Hester) Taylor, Jackie, Delazon, Sha’Ria’s, and T.J. Taylor; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all who will miss her dearly.

As we say farewell to our beloved Ida Mae, we remember the wonderful years we shared her life. We are comforted in knowing that she now rests in the Arms of Our Lord and Savior. God has another beautiful flower for His garden.
