Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

Obituary of

Ms. Barbara Ann Robinson Trapp

Ms. Barbara Ann Robinson Trapp, affectionately known as “BT,” was born in Columbia, South Carolina, on Wednesday, July 20, 1949. She was the daughter of the late Ida Mae Curry Smith and granddaughter of the late Joe Curry and Rosa Bell Cave Curry. Barbara departed Columbia and this world Tuesday, September 10, 2024.

She was a longtime member of New Laurel Street Missionary Baptist Church and served as a member of the Pastor’s Aid and Seniors Ministries.

Barbara was educated in the public school systems of Richland County and was a proud graduate of “The Booker T. Washington, (BTW) High School” where she was a Majorette on the BTW Original Marching Band...Black and Gold!

Barbara was a hard worker who joined the workforce in 1968 until her retirement in 2006. She was a loyal employee of Phillips Component, formally GE Electric and Masters Foods, USA “Kal Kan.” Barbara’s hard work also led her to discover bowling, a passion she began in the early 80’s and continued until weeks before her passing.

Barbara was a pillar of strength and grace that embodied the values of compassion, resiliency and unwavering faith. She dedicated her life to her family, friends and community, leaving behind a legacy of love and dedication. Her spirited personality and unwavering support will be remembered by all who were fortunate enough to know her and be touched by her kindness and moved by her wrath.

She leaves behind her three children, Atleathe Dunn, of Radcliff, Kentucky, Ricky Trapp (LaToya), of Columbia S.C., and LaTarsha Trapp, also of Columbia S.C., four grandchildren and four great-grands, and a host of cousins, friends, and her church and bowling families. She loved and cherished you all.
