

Obituary

Ms. Elsie Mae “Kitty” Turnipseed of 1016 Pine Street, was born August 23, 1946, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the youngest daughter of the late Fred Turnipseed, Sr. and Elsie Robinson Turnipseed. She departed this life on Thursday, September 19, 2024, at Prisma Health Baptist.

Ms. Turnipseed was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School.

Ms. Turnipseed, whom most knew as “Kitty,” was the sweetest, caring, and most loving mother, grandmother, sister, family member and friend, that anyone could ever ask for. Her doors were always opened to anyone in need. She never turned anyone away and greeted everyone with a smile. Ms. Turnipseed enjoyed shopping, gardening, going out to eat, and talking with her family.

In addition to her parents, Ms. Turnipseed was preceded in death by her brothers, Fred, Hurbert, Willie, Isaac, and Albert Turnipseed; sisters, Betty Williams and Charlotte Brown.

Ms. Elsie Mae “Kitty” Turnipseed leaves to cherish her precious memory: a loving daughter, Onnie (Kris) Moody, of Columbia, South Carolina; a son, Louis Turnipseed, of Columbia, South Carolina; six grandsons, Marcus Hampton, Johnathan Moody, Damian Moody, Brandon Moody, Louis Turnipseed, and Christopher General; five great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, and many other loving relatives, who will miss her dearly.

Poem

Don't cry or grieve
For I had to leave.
He has set me free
My life was full, I had so much
A loving family and good friends.
If my leaving has left a gap
Then fill each waking hour with
Remembered joys and shared laughter.
For I will miss these things, too
Raise your head and don't fear
Because I'm always near
And waiting to be with you all again
In those pearly gates in the sky
The Lord has set me free!
