

Don't

Don't spend too much time in mourning, tears are for the sad. I left to be with Jesus and this should make you glad. Don't waste your hours in grieving; no need to feel distress.

I'm tired of life's frustrations and had to get some rest.
Don't vex yourself with questions or try to reason why?

Life here for me has ended; it came my time to die.

Don't lose the love I gave you; feed it with your care.

Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way.

We'll have another meeting in God's eternal day.

Daddy, they say there is a reason

They say time will heal;

Neither time or reason

Will change the way we feel.

Gone are the days we used to share,

But in our heart you are always there.

The gates of memories will never close;

We miss you more than anybody knows...

We will love and miss you everyday

Till we meet again

ALWAYS & FOREVER

Obituary of Mr. James Johnson

James Johnson, affectionately known as “Roy” and “Geedah” to his and family friends, was born in Columbia, South Carolina to the late Laurie and Clarethia Corbitt Johnson on July 7, 1953. He departed this earthly life Saturday, October 26, 2024, in Shreveport, Louisiana.

James was educated in the public schools of Richland School District One in Columbia, South Carolina. James was employed by Bell South and later with Quincy’s Steakhouse. He was baptized at an early age, at Bible Way Church of Atlas Road. During his time in Louisiana, James rededicated his life back to Christ. James’ hobbies included traveling, cooking, hanging out with friends, watching sports, lifting weights, and talking on the phone. James loved to dress and accent his outfits with hats.

In addition to his parents, James was preceded in death by a sister, Sherry Johnson Dessauere; two brothers-in-law, Ernest Dessauere and Willie Davis; two beloved nieces, Doria Pough and Teresa Johnson; and a nephew, Anthony Johnson.

James leaves to celebrate his life and cherish his memory with his children, Ebony (Walter) Johnson of Gaston, SC and Terrance Robertson of Columbia, SC; his grandchildren, Iviance, Braylon, and Bryson Johnson of Gaston, SC; his two sisters, Francena Davis of Columbia, SC and Doretha (James) Pough of Irmo, SC; his three brothers, Laurie Johnson, Jr. of Shreveport, LA, Marion Johnson, and Charles Johnson; both of Columbia, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
