Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road.
The sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long;
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go
For this is a journey we all must take;
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan -
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Mr. Elkinnah Smith was born on October 8, 1946, in Hopkins, South Carolina. He was the oldest child of Leanna Smith. He departed this life on Friday, September 27, 2024.

Elkinnah was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He was employed with Cate-McLaurin Tire Company, in Columbia, South Carolina, until moving to Delaware in 1969. While in Delaware, he was employed with Chrysler Auto Corporation for 39 years until his retirement in 2008. Elkinnah was a loyal member of the U.A.W. Chapter 1183, in Newark, Delaware.

He loved baseball and horse racing at Delaware Park and Casino. Elkinnah loved listening to gospel music, particularly Lee Williams.

Elkinnah was preceded in death by his mother, Leanna Smith; his son, Al-Cornelius Jones; grandmother, Charlotte Smith; three brothers, Calvin, Alex, and Benjamin Smith; two sisters, Wilhelmenia and Hattie Smith; a special cousin who was like a brother, Charles “Butch” Davis.

Mr. Elkinnah Smith leaves to cherish his memory: his brother, Herbert Smith, of Columbia, South Carolina; two sisters, Rebecca and Carolyn Smith, both of Columbia, South Carolina; one aunt, Mary Smith-Bannister, of Columbia, South Carolina; one uncle, Leroy Smith, of Columbia, South Carolina; special friends, Julius (Regina) Parrish, of New Castle, Delaware; a host of other loving family members and friends.
