Reflections of the Life of LaRone Kashod Washington, Esquire

LaRone Kashod Washington was born in Charleston, SC, on September 19, 1985, to Larry and Angelia Washington. He was the youngest of three children. LaRone transitioned from his earthly life to enter the Kingdom of God on Tuesday, October 22, 2024.

LaRone attended Blessed Sacrament Catholic School and graduated from Bishop England High School in 2003. He went on to attend Wofford College in Spartanburg, SC, where he received a Bachelor of Arts in 2007. After Wofford College, LaRone began his legal education and graduated from Charleston School of Law in 2010. He was sworn into the South Carolina Bar Association in November 2010.

As a young child, LaRone enjoyed sports, music, and spending time with friends and family. He demonstrated his leadership skills, spiritual growth, and commitment to community service from an early age. LaRone served as an alter server and lecturer at St Joseph's Catholic Church and participated in multiple academic and community groups. His walk across the Edmund Pettus Bridge ignited his passion for social justice. He used his platforms including serving as DJ Boy Wonder on a local radio (WPAL) program called The Voices of Tomorrow. LaRone received the "Heart of the Terrier" leadership award from Wofford College signifying the positive impact he made on campus as well as his commitment to scholarship, service, and citizenship. During his time at Charleston School of Law, he also served as president of the Black Law Students Association.

LaRone served as a law clerk for the Honorable Judge Michael Nettles in Florence, SC. He later became an assistant solicitor working under Solicitor Ernest "Chip" Finney. For the past 10 years, he has worked at the SC Attorney General's Office under the leadership of Alan Wilson. As an Assistant Deputy Attorney General, LaRone had the opportunity to build a team of special individuals who served alongside him with a shared mission.

LaRone was the current president of St. John Neumann Catholic School's Parent Student Association and co-founder and coordinator of the Dad's Club. He enjoyed these leadership roles as it gave him additional time to spend with his daughter Avery.

Although he was a devout Catholic, LaRone was always so proud and enjoyed coming back to his home church of Greater St Luke A.M.E., where he was often a speaker.

He leaves to mourn his wife Nicole Washington and beautiful daughter Avery, who was the light of his life; his parents, Larry and Angelia Washington; siblings, DaKysha Onsomu (Elijah) and Kimyatta Washington; nephew, Asher Onsomu; grandmother, Catherine Washington; in-laws, Charles and Bertha White; brother-in-law, Charles White, Jr; aunts, Reverend Vermelle Owings (Richard), Thomasina Moore, Francina Moore, Miriam Smith (Jeffrey), and Blondell Simmons (Ronald); uncle, Leroy Washington; devoted cousins, LaShanne Goins (Damien), Jamaal Moore, Lona Bersaglia (Michael), and Sidney Bryant (Purity); a host of other loving cousins; special god sister, Barbara White Brown; and special grandaunt, Mary Smalls.

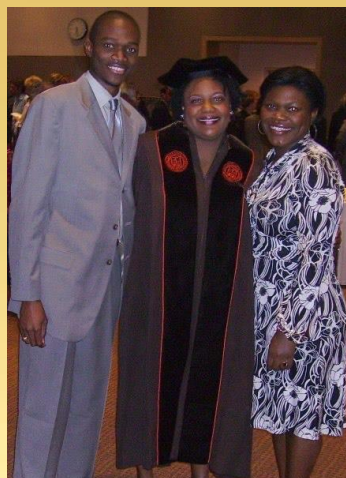

LaRone's loving spirit and contributions will forever leave an imprint on our hearts.

LaRone,
In a world often clouded by shadows, you were a bright light, a soul full of grace. You effortlessly let your light shine. You brightened the day for everyone you met. You perfectly exemplified Matthew 5:16, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in Heaven." Your life glorified our Father in every way. You touched the heart of every person you met in every big and small gesture, warm word, joyful laugh, and reassuring smile. You were the kindest, gentlest, most humble man. You listened with patience and responded with care. Your presence was magical. You lifted spirits and dissolved despair. You were welcoming to all and always willing to help, no matter the circumstance. You were an amazing husband and an even more amazing father. You embodied patience, love, and unwavering support in everything you did for our family. Your laughter filled our home, creating an atmosphere of joy and security that we admired and thrived in. Reflecting on how much you accomplished in your short time here on Earth is amazing. Although we will miss you terribly, our sorrow is eased, knowing that you led a good life and can now do the things you were unable to do on Earth. Until we meet again, we'll cherish our memories of you and use your legacy to inspire us all to do great things. Your light will remain in our heart's deepest chamber, a beacon of love through joy and pain.

We will love you forever!
