

Obituary

Mrs. Vivian Davenport Crandall was born on June 10, 1951, in Prosperity, SC. She was the second child of Vera and Thomas C. Davenport. She departed this life's journey on Wednesday, November 13, 2024, after a long illness at MUSC, Forest Drive, Columbia, SC.

Vivian was educated in the public school system of Richland One. A graduate of Eau Claire High School, Class of 1969. Vivian was also a graduate of Midlands Technical College, earning her degree in Early Childhood Development. After graduation, she was employed by Dreher High School, where she worked for more than 30 years before retiring. While at Dreher, she was also employed with Shandon Child Care Nursey for 35 years, where she held many positions while there.

Vivian was a member of Columbia Christian Fellowship, where she was a Sunday School Teacher, Choir Member, and worked with Children's Church. She later became a member of Right Direction Church International. At Right Direction, she was a faithful member in good standing, working on the Senior Season Choir, Usher Board, Food Share Program, A Swata Sister, and home bible study. Vivian enjoyed exercise classes at Park Lane Recreational Center, line dancing, Senior Olympia, bowling, and volunteering wherever needed. She was very involved in the community.

Vivian was preceded in death by her parents, Vera and Thomas C. Davenport; sister, Dorothy Miles; children, Erika Hayward and Thomas Manigo.

Mrs. Vivian Davenport Crandall leaves to mourn her passing; her husband, Jimmy Crandall; stepchildren, Yolaunda Crandall Baker, Jimmy Crandall, Jr. both of New York, NY, and Jarrett Crandall, of Columbia, SC; eleven grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; son-in-law, Joseph Hayward, of Columbia, SC; sister, Rosetta Stewart (Melvin) of Columbia, SC; aunt, Delores Counts, of Columbia, SC; brothers-in-law, Eddie and William Crandall, of New York, NY; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Proverbs 31:10-31

King James Version (KJV)

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.

She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands, she planteth a vineyard.

She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.

She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.
