Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road.
The sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long;
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go
For this is a journey we all must take;
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan -
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary of Mr. Marshall Morant

Mr. Marshall Morant was born on September 3, 1957, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the youngest child of the late Thomas S. Morant and Ila Goodman Morant. He transitioned to eternal life on Tuesday, November 5, 2024.

Marshall was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He was a 1975 graduate of Dreher High School. In 1978, he graduated from Midlands Technical College with an associate degree in Printing. Marshall enjoyed searching archives for family history.

He was a devout member of Wesley United Methodist Church. Marshall was a member of the choir, the Male Chorus, and a member of the United Methodist Men.

In addition to his parents, Marshall was preceded in death by eight siblings.

Mr. Marshall Morant leaves to cherish his precious memory: one sister, Yvonne Sanders, of Columbia, South Carolina; one brother, Robert Earl Morant, of Columbia, South Carolina; two sisters-in-law, Dorothy Morant and Barbara Morant, both of Columbia, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and church family, all who will mourn his passing.
