

Obituary of Ms. Blanche Hazel Cook Brown

Ms. Blanche Hazel Cook Brown was born on March 24, 1941, in Winnsboro, South Carolina. She was the beloved wife for 57 years to the late Jimmie Brown and the cherished daughter of the late Preston and Blanche Evans Cook. On Tuesday, December 3, 2024, Hazel departed this life at home in Blythewood, South Carolina, and went to be with the Lord in her eternal home.

Hazel was a 1959 graduate of Bethel High School. She was employed at State Park Hospital until 1962, when she married Jimmie Brown, who served in the United States Air Force for 20 years. The Brown Family lived in various states and countries until Jimmie retired from the Air Force in 1979. After retiring, they returned to South Carolina.

Hazel was a loving and devoted wife, mother, and caring friend. She was a faithful member of First Northeast Baptist Church. She loved others deeply with a warm heart and kind spirit. Hazel also enjoyed singing and listening to gospel songs. She will be greatly missed by those who knew her.

Ms. Blanche Hazel Cook Brown leaves to cherish her loving memory: one son, Jimmie Brown, Jr. of Wilmington, Delaware; one daughter, Edith B. Brown, of Columbia, South Carolina, one sister-in-law, Phyllis (Charles) Rideout, of Blythewood, South Carolina; one godson, Wesley Davis; one goddaughter, Moriah Johnson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

*We are taught to celebrate your life
As we come to say goodbye
But it hurts because we miss you
So, for a while we have to cry.*

*It is not our place to question
Why things turn out as they do
But we know that Jesus loves you
And He made a place for you.*

*He will wrap His arms around you
As He takes you from this place
You'll feel the power of His love
And his amazing grace.*

*Your sins are all forgiven
He said so on the cross
He paid that debt so long ago
So, we would not be lost.*

*We can hear the angels singing
As you're led up to the throne,
And a heavenly voice is ringing
Peace be with you...welcome home.*
