Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Ms. Sky Brown was born on January 8, 1998, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the beloved daughter of Nathaniel Brown and Alberta Roney.

Sky was educated in the public schools of Richland County and was a 2016 graduate of C. A. Johnson High School.

She was employed as nurse's assistant for the Brian Center. She has always enjoyed and loved taking care of others in her life. Sky was a true believer of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was always full of joy and love when it came to her friends and family.

Sky was preceded in death by her brothers, James Sumter and Devon Roney.

She leaves to cherish her life memories: sons, Diego Semaj Da'Shawn Mayo and Dinero Quinen Mayo; daughter, Sky Lynn Marie Ford; father, Nathaniel Brown; mother, Alberta Roney; brother Cortez Jiles; sister Natoya Brown; grandmothers, Mary Davis and Veronica Clinckscapes; a host of nieces, nephews, aunt, uncles and caring friends, all who will miss her dearly.

"She is of good courage and would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord" 2 Corinthians 5:8
