

Obituary

Mr. Charles Edward Bryant was a devoted husband, cherished dad, loving papa, and an unforgettable presence in the lives of many. Charles passed away on Tuesday, December 17th, 2024, at the age of 56, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and generosity that will never be forgotten.

Charles had a big personality that could light up any room. He was known to be a great mentor, for his infectious laugh, and his ability to connect with people from all walks of life. Whether he was sharing a story, lending a hand, or just being himself, he left an indelible mark on everyone he met.

A passionate motorcycle enthusiast, “Mr. Clean” found freedom and joy on the open road. He often said that life was about the journey, not just the destination, and he lived that truth every day. Riding alongside friends and family brought him immense happiness, and he cherished the community of fellow riders who became like family to him.

Above all, Charles was a man of immense heart. He was a steadfast supporter, always there to lift others up and offer a helping hand. His kindness and selflessness touched countless lives, and his unwavering love for his family was evident in all he did. As a husband, he was a rock of support and a source of boundless love. As a father and stepfather, providing guidance and unconditional care. As a Papa, he embraced his role with pride, devotion and youthful enthusiasm.

Mr. Charles Edward Bryant is survived by his beloved wife, Willieann “Ann” Bryant; his son, Charles Bryant, Jr; his granddaughter, Charlie Bryant; his niece, Elizabeth Carino; nephew, Sergio Carino; stepchildren, Keyerria Howard, Tereniy Howard, and Dedrick Howard, Jr.; and an enormous circle of friends and coworkers who became family. He will be deeply missed but forever remembered by all who were fortunate enough to know him.

Ride on, Charles! May the road rise to meet you, and may you forever find peace in the wind.

“The Road Goes On”

The road stretched wide, the wind so free,
A spirit boundless, wild as the sea.
With laughter loud and heart so kind,
A soul like yours is hard to find.

You rode through life with fearless grace,
The open road your sacred space.
A friend to many, a guiding light,
You made the darkest days feel bright.

Your hands built hope, your heart gave care,
No burden too heavy for you to bear.
A husband steadfast, a father proud,
A voice that rose above the crowd.

Though now you've reached that final bend,
Where earthbound roads and heavens blend,
Your journey's mark will never fade,
In hearts you touched and love you made.

Ride on in peace, through skies so wide,
With stars to guide and winds to ride.
Though we'll miss you, one thing is clear—
Your spirit lives in every tear.

A Biker's Prayer

May the sun rise in front of me.

The rain falls behind me

And the wind follows me.

May the Angels guard my travels

For the know what is ahead of me

Keep me safe through rolling hills and swirling turns,

Let the eagle guide me

To the mountain tops.

Let the moon's light guide me

Through the night.

Lord, thank you for letting me be a biker!
