

SAFELY HOME

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remains
You shall rest in Jesus,
When your work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Obituary of Mrs. Alma Lawhorn Wilson Cook

Mrs. Alma Lawhorn Wilson Cook was born November 18, 1929. Alma was the daughter of the late Howard Lawhorn and Minnie Harris Lawhorn. She attended Second Ward High School, in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Alma accepted Christ and joined the Zion Canaan Baptist Church at an early age, where she attended faithfully during childhood and her adult life. Upon graduation from nursing school, she worked as a Nurse with Columbia Hospitals before joining the S.C. Department of Health. She retired from the State Park Health facility after a thirty-year service and career. Alma's ministry work included community service and using her culinary skills as a faithful member of the Kitchen and Food Services Ministry at Zion Canaan Baptist Church. Mrs. Cook served dutifully until the onset of health challenges.

She was preceded by her husband, Mr. August Cook, who passed away in December 1996.

Mrs. Cook leaves to cherish fond and precious memories: two loving sons, Richard (Leola) and Kenny (Linda) Cook, both of Columbia, SC; seven grandchildren, Maurice (Iona), Brian, Eric (Ashley), Erica, Kimberly, Alexandria, and Toyletta (Charles); nine great-grandchildren; a special cousin, Hazel Gold; a host of other loving relatives and church family, who join the family in the celebration of a well-lived life.

'Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass.' Psalm 37:5
