

Tribute

There are many teachers and few fathers. There are few who are worthy of honor. This man was a quiet yet honorable father. A man deserving of respect and honor. A swift ear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath. A man of wisdom. A man who walked among God's paths. A voice that was soft yet strong. A Mighty Man of Valor whom the Lord God has called home.

Obituary of Mr. Ernest Thompson

Mr. Ernest Thompson, affectionately known as “Duck” or “Nunie,” was born on April 29, 1953, in Eastover, South Carolina, to the late Alonzia Edward Thompson and Flossie Lee Davis Thompson. He departed this earthly life on Saturday, December 14, 2024, peacefully at his residence.

Ernest attended the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina and graduated.

Ernest accepted Jesus Christ at an early age, and was a member of Siloam Baptist Church, where he served as a Trustee and a Senior Usher, until his health declined.

Ernest was a devoted husband, father, brother, uncle, and grandfather. He was the quiet person in the room, with the biggest heart. He didn’t say much, but when he spoke it was profound. He loved the outdoors and working in his yard. Ernest proudly served in the United States Army in the Airborne Division for our great nation. He worked at Anchor Continental for 20 years. He later received his CDL License and worked for Expedx Trucking Company, until his retirement.

In addition to his parents, Ernest was preceded in death by a brother, Tresvant Thompson.

Mr. Ernest Thompson leaves to cherish his precious memories: his lovely wife, Lorine Jenkins Thompson of 37 years; three stepdaughters, Sheron (Craig) Hill, Charlene Speaks, and Lenora Mack all of Columbia, SC; five grandchildren, Jarvis (Shayla) Jenkins, Anza Hill, Koya Hill, Timothy Speaks, and Sakia Jenkins; six great-grandchildren, Laila, Liyah, Nalaya, Kasen, Louie, and Dash; three sisters, Clara Pinckney of Hopkins, SC, Karen (Elijah) Moore of Columbia, SC, and Kathy Nathan, of Hopkins, SC; six brothers, Larry (Lorraine) Thompson of Columbia, SC, Lonzo (Louise) Thompson of Eastover, SC, Sylvester Thompson, Clarence (Willine) Thompson, Ulyseese, and Tyrone Thompson all of Hopkins, SC; one aunt, Anna Davis of Columbia, SC; one uncle, Walter Thompson; four sisters-in-law, Sylvia (Ben) Scott, Patricia Lawrence, Carrie Jenkins, and Melvina (Arthur) Mitchell all of Columbia, SC; a host of loving nieces, nephews, and caring friends and family, all of whom will miss him dearly.
