

Obituary of

Mrs. Deloris Williams Tucker

Mrs. Deloris Williams Tucker was born on July 18, 1941, in Aiken County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Leslie Williams and Kaggie Williams. She departed this life on Saturday, December 7, 2024, at Prisma Health Richland Hospital, in Columbia, South Carolina.

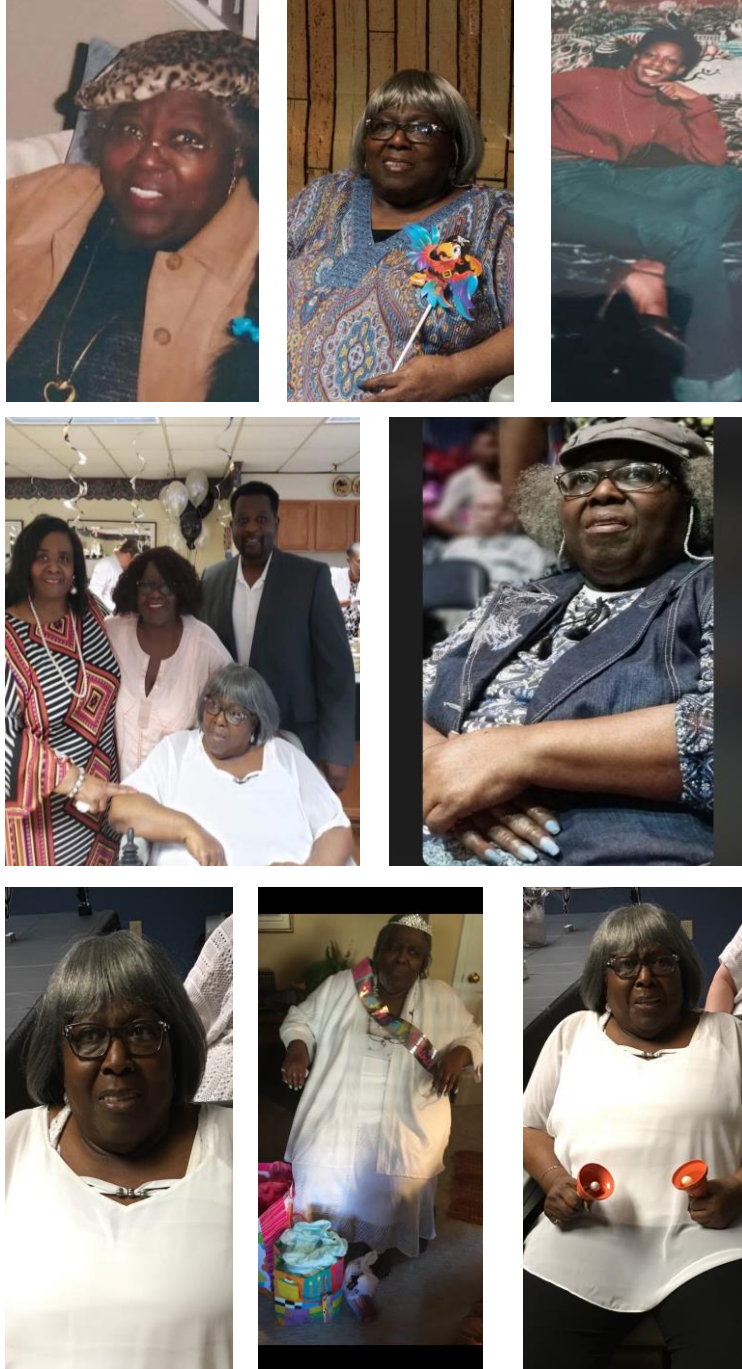

Mrs. Tucker was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was a member of Christ of Church at Ames Road. She was joined in holy matrimony to the late John Tucker, who preceded her in death.

Due to her illness, Mrs. Tucker retired, but she remained busy volunteering for various causes. In the building that she lived in, she was the founding member of a bell choir named "The Ding a Lings." The building in which she lived she was the longest living residence, where she lived for 40 years.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Winifred Kay Tucker Thomas; two sisters, Selestea Williams Carswell and Bernice Williams Bates.

Those left to cherish her precious memory are: her daughters, Cynthia Tucker Walker and Tereasa Tucker Davis; son, John H. Tucker, Jr.; grandchildren, Tyatta Davis, Tia (Daniel) Frey, Delvaron Thomas, Danielle Brockington, Brittany Thomas, Bernard Tucker, and Jacynth Tucker; niece, Carmen Belton-Carter; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mrs. Deloris Williams Tucker, would like to thank each of you for your prayers and support during the passing of our loved one. It is our prayer that the Lord blesses each of you in a very special way. A very special thank you to Ms. Edith, who volunteered her time being our mother's caregiver.

With a heart so pure,
And a love so true,
A little boy sends
Straws to heaven for you.
For his Granny dear,
Who's now up above,
He wants to make sure,
She's got straws to love.
He picks out the colors too,
And carefully packages each straw
With love anew,
He writes a little note,
With a message so sweet,
"Granny, I Love you, and
I am sending these treats."
With a wish and a prayer,
He lets out a sigh,
And sends the straws soaring into the sky.
He knows that Granny is smiling,
With joy in her eyes
As she receives her straws,
And feels her grandson's surprise.
So if you look up high and see
A straw or two,
Just know that it's from a grandson,
Who's sending love to you.
