Reflections of the Life of Mrs. Alfredia Brown Christian

Mrs. Alfredia Brown Christian was born on February 6, 1951. She was the oldest child of the late Willie Eugene Brown and Alberta Carr Brown. She departed this life on Thursday, January 16, 2025.

Mrs. Christian was educated in the public school systems of Lexington County, South Carolina. She was a 1969 graduate of Airport High School. She later attended and graduated from the University of South Carolina in 1984 with an associate's degree in nursing. Mrs. Christian was a registered nurse at the Dorn VA Medical Center, where she retired after 30 years of service.

Mrs. Christian enjoyed spending time with family and friends. "Peach Cobbler" as she was affectionately called by her husband, was a devoted wife of 44 years and was always at her husband's side. Mrs. Christian was a God-fearing matriarch who always care for her children and always gave them Christian advice from her heart. Her quick wit will be missed by everyone who knew her.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Christian was preceded in death by her sister, Patricia Thompson.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

*When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

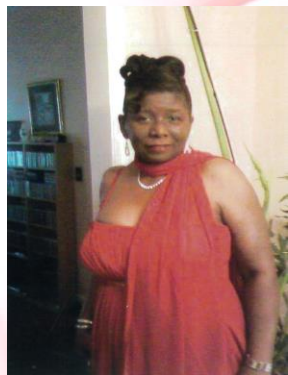

*But when I walked through Heaven's gate, I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne.*

*He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you."
Today my life on earth is past, but here it starts anew*

*I promise no tomorrow but today will always last
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time, you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.*
