

To My Loving Dad In Heaven

Our time together was special,
so were the memories we made
And although you live in Heaven now, those memories never fade

I bow my head in silence and remember you with love
And I know that you are up there, watching from above

Everyday's a struggle and nothing feels the same
And my heart breaks a little more every time
I hear your name

You'll always be remembered, and time may heal my heart
But a piece of me is missing since the day we had to part

If Heaven is for Angels, then I know that's where you'll be
And I know you will be waiting when Heaven calls for me.

Tribute

I would like to thank each of you for being here today to honor and remember the life of my beloved husband, Cliff.

We gather not only to mourn our loss, but also to celebrate the incredible legacy he left behind. Cliff was the kind of person who touched the lives of everyone he met. Whether through his kindness, generosity, sense of humor, or unwavering support, he was truly a special soul.

Cliff had an amazing ability to make people feel seen and heard. It didn't matter whether you were a life-long friend, a colleague, or even a stranger—he treated everyone with the same respect and warmth. He had a way of making each person feel important, and that's just one of the many reasons he was so deeply loved.

We were blessed to share 38 incredible years of marriage, filled with love, laughter, a beautiful daughter, and a grandson. Along with countless cherished memories. I'll always hold dear the special times we shared, like our trips to the beach and the unforgettable Disney vacation our daughter took us on just this past December. Those moments, along with so many others, will stay in my heart forever. Cliff, I love you and miss you more than words can express.

It's hard to put into words the void that's been left behind, but I believe the true measure of a person's life is in the impact they have on others. By that measure, Cliff leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and inspiration.

As we say goodbye to Cliff today, let's remember the joy he brought into our lives, and let us hold onto the many lessons he taught us. Though he may no longer be with us in person, the love and memories we shared will remain in our hearts forever.

Rest in peace, my dear husband. You will always be missed but never forgotten.

With all my love,
Irene

Obituary of Mr. Clifford Golston

Mr. Clifford Golston was born on July 2, 1965, in West Columbia, South Carolina to Eugene and Jessie Golston. As the eldest of their children, he was a cherished member of the family. He passed away on Sunday, January 26, 2025.

Clifford received his education in the public schools of Lexington County, South Carolina, and graduated from Airport High School, Class of 1982. He later attended Vorhees College, where he majored in Criminal Justice. In his early years, he worked alongside his father assisting with the construction and repair of homes. Clifford eventually became a successful entrepreneur, owning and operating an auto and motorcycle repair business called GForce Performance Cycles.

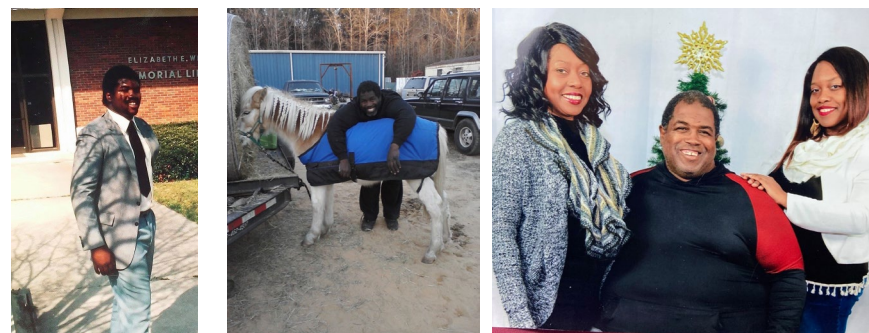

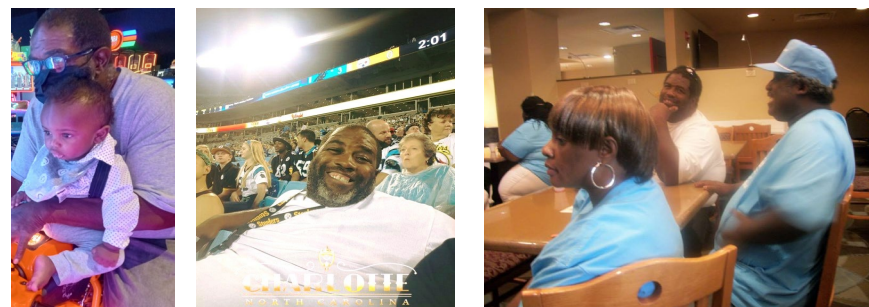

As a man of deep faith, Mr. Golston was baptized at an early age and became a member of Heyward A.M.E. Church in West Columbia, South Carolina. He found great joy in fishing and treasured the time he spent playing with his grandson.

Mr. Clifford Golston is survived by his loving wife, Irene Golston; his daughter, Felisha Golston, of Lexington, South Carolina; his grandson, Isaiah Golston, of Lexington, South Carolina; mother, Jessie Golston, of West Columbia, South Carolina; father, Eugene Golston, of West Columbia, South Carolina; his brothers, Anthony Golston and Troy Golston, both of West Columbia, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mr. Clifford Golston, would like to thank each of you for the many expressions of love and kindness shown to us during the passing of our loved one. It is our prayer that the Lord blesses each of you in a very special way.
