I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

of Mr. James Christopher Green

"Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."
Matt. 11:28-30 KJV

Mr. James Christopher Green, the youngest of ten children born to Ruth and Joseph Green on October 22, 1982, in Barnwell County, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 1, 2025, at Prisma Health Baptist Hospital in Columbia, SC, surrounded by his loving family. He was 42 years old.

A proud graduate of Barnwell High School, Class of 2000, James went on to attend the University of South Carolina-Aiken. He worked for approximately 20 years as a Senior Engineering Technician with S&ME Company in Columbia, SC. James joined Bethlehem Baptist Church in Barnwell, SC, at a young age. Over the years, he also worshipped at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Blackville, SC, and Flora Branch Baptist Church in North, SC. He carried the values of his upbringing throughout his life, and his character, integrity, and respect for others were the hallmarks of his personality.

James had a deep love for the outdoors, especially hunting, fishing, and swimming. These activities were more than just hobbies to him; they were a way for him to connect with nature and the people he cherished. Whether it was a hunting trip or gathering family and friends for a cookout at his home, James had a remarkable ability to bring people together. He loved sharing these moments and creating memories that would last a lifetime.

In his quieter moments, James was a deep thinker, and a person of faith and humility. He often reflected on the blessings of his life and approached each day with gratitude. His gentle spirit and sense of humor brought joy to those around him. James was not one to seek attention or accolades, but his actions spoke volumes about his character. He was someone you could always count on, and someone who led by example, with patience, kindness, and an open heart.

As we celebrate James' life, we also reflect on the lives of those who preceded him in death: his parents, Joseph and Ruth Green; a brother, Samuel Isaac Green; and wife, Hadiya Green.

James is survived by his wife, Allison; daughter, Chloe Jeanette; and son, Jameson Jair, who will miss him dearly. He is also survived by his sisters, Pamela (Reggie) Whitlock of the Washington D.C area, Patricia Green-Gandy of Atlanta, GA, Sarah (Rodney) Williams of Hampton, SC, Katrina (Tommy) Johnson of Williston, SC, and Sharranda (Roderick) Neal of Columbia, SC; brothers, Benjamin (Tammie) Green of Florida, Jonathan Green, and Michael (Achaia) Green, both of Columbia, SC; a loving circle of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, co-workers, a special uncle, Arthur Johnny Green; and his best friend, Alvin Ford, who were all blessed by his presence. His legacy of love, kindness, and generosity will forever remain in the hearts of everyone who had the privilege of knowing him.
