

Brother

You gave no one a last farewell
You gave no one a last farewell,
Nor ever said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
A million times we'll miss you.
A million times we'll cry.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
No one else can ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
We will meet again some day,
I know in a better place.
I thank God He made you my brother,
While you were here on earth.

Tribute

Jimmy was a loving and peaceful person. He was laid back, calm, relaxed, and didn't like or entertain drama. He was a homebody, he worked from home and the only place he went to was Family Dollar. Jimmy was a calm man with a simple soul. He used to brag about how John McFadden raised men and you were an example of a great man. You were so proud of your McFadden name. I thank you for the wonderful memories, a relationship with no arguments during our 15 years of marriage, and your steady calmness. Thank you for being my earthly rock. Now you go and rest in the arms of your heavenly rock. You will be missed tremendously but I have your last words to me that I will always cherish, "Lois, Lois, I am okay. I am okay". Take your rest, my sweet husband.

Your wife, Delores McFadden

Obituary of Mr. Jimmy McFadden

Mr. Jimmy McFadden was born on January 26, 1961, in Lake City, South Carolina. He was the youngest child of the late John and Etta Margaret McFadden. Jimmy departed this life on Sunday, January 19, 2025, at Prisma Health Richland Hospital, Columbia, South Carolina.

Jimmy was educated in the public schools of Florence County, South Carolina, and graduated from Cades-Hebron High School, with the Class of 1979. After graduating from high school, Jimmy joined the United States Army and did all his years of service in Frankfurt, Germany, receiving an honorable discharge. Jimmy furthered his education by taking several technical and clerical courses to expand his knowledge.

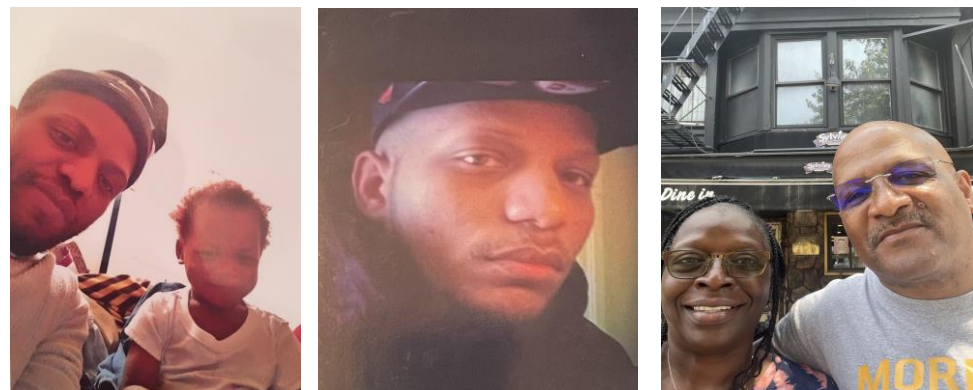

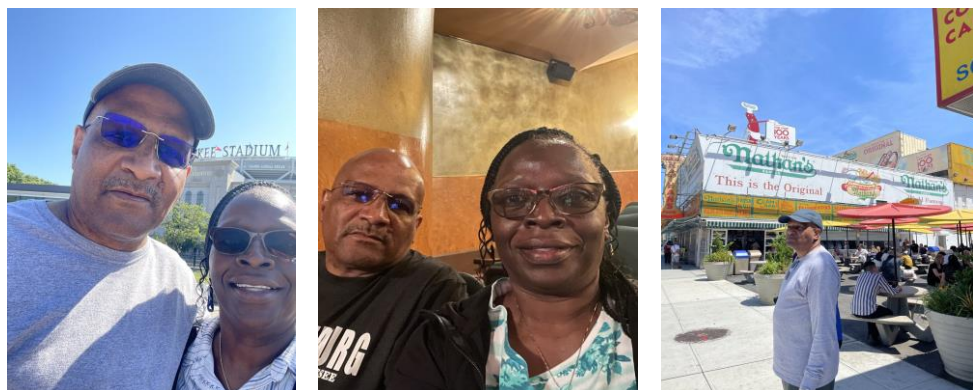

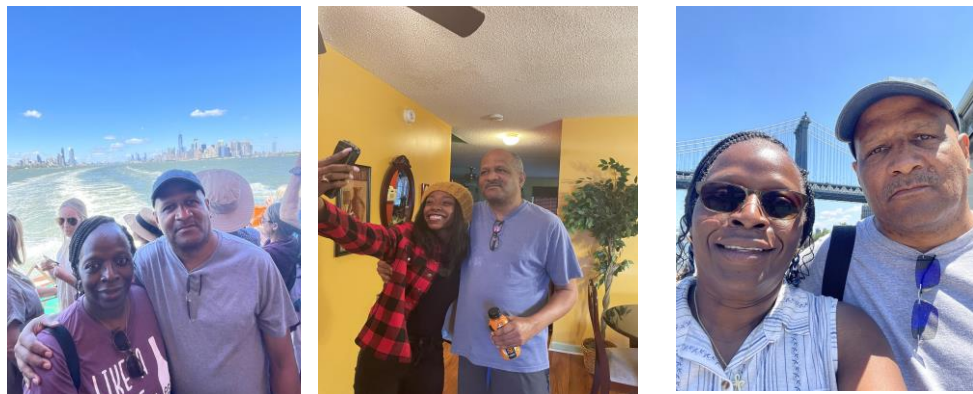

Jimmy had a passion for technology and was very efficient at repairing computers and TVs. He worked for several years with Allied Universal in Columbia, South Carolina, providing security services at the Capitol Center. For the last 10 years, he has worked remotely with several technology companies, repairing computer issues telephonically.

In addition to his parents, Jimmy was preceded in death by his oldest sister, Thomasena McFadden, several in-laws, and a nephew.

Jimmy leaves to cherish many wonderful memories with his loving wife of 15 years, Delores McFadden, Columbia, South Carolina; three sons, Jaron Lamar McFadden, Antuan Mario McFadden, and Jimmy McFadden, all of Hartford, Connecticut; three children by marriage, Donald Williams III (Jessica), Columbia, South Carolina and Danesha Williams, Charlotte, North Carolina; one grandson, Kayden McFadden, Hartford, Connecticut; five brothers, Roosevelt McFadden, Pompano Beach, Florida, Nathaniel McFadden, Cades, South Carolina, Murel McFadden (Deloris), Cades, South Carolina, Johnny McFadden (Lisa), Lake City, South Carolina, and Earl McFadden (Janie), Lake City, South Carolina; two sisters, Barbara Adams, Kingtree, South Carolina and Patsy Pearson, Lake City, South Carolina; one aunt, Mattie McFadden, Lake City, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, and many other relatives who will miss him dearly.

Jimmy is no longer with us, but his calm spirit and love will forever live in our hearts.
