A life so vibrant, a spirit so bright, the story of Micah Alexander Torbert, though tragically cut short, deserves to be told with the same energy he gave it. Born on January 23, 1989, at Lackland Airforce Base in San Antonio, Texas, Micah entered the world a force to be reckoned with. The second son of George and Fabre' Torbert, his journey began amidst the promise of a boundless future. Sadly, that journey concluded on January 28, 2025, leaving a void in the hearts of all who knew him.

Micah's formative years were spent in the public schools of Cumberland County, NC, and Harford County, MD, where he blossomed into a bright and driven young man. A 2007 graduate of Aberdeen High School, he wasn't one to rest on his laurels. Micah pursued higher education with unwavering dedication, earning his associate's degree in engineering from Harford Community College in 2012, followed by a bachelor's degree in economics from Towson University in 2017. His education and life experience paved the way for a successful career as a Sales Executive at PayPal, where he made his mark.

Micah's spiritual journey began early with his baptism at Cliffdale Christian Center in Fayetteville, North Carolina, providing a foundation of faith that guided him throughout his life.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Micah possessed a zest for life. He embraced the world with open arms, indulging his passion for travel and cherishing the precious moments spent with his family, especially his three nephews, who were undoubtedly the apples of his eye.

Though his time with us was too brief, Micah's memory will live on. He joins his grandfathers, Richard Walter Jenkins and George Torbert Sr., and his grandmother, Clara May Joyce, in eternal peace.

He leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories for his devoted parents, George and Fabre' Torbert; his sisters, Eris (Damion) Allen, Norielle Torbert, and Megan Moore; his beloved nephews, Xavier Allen, Blair Allen, and Darren Joseph Allen; his grandmother, Dorothy Hodge; a host of loving relatives and friends, all of whom will forever feel the absence of his radiant spirit. Micah's story is a reminder to live each day to the fullest, just as he did.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
