The Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.

Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win

Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best

Just say I tried to do what's right,

To give the most I could, not less

Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.

I want no more than I deserve, no extra, just my due.

Please don't give flowers or talk in real hushed tones

Don't be concerned about me now,

I'm well with God, I've made it home.

Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done.

Just see to all my family's needs, especially the little ones

When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint

I've done some good, I've done some wrong

So use all of your paint, not just the bright and light tones

Use some gray and dark; in fact, don't paint me down on canvas

Paint me in your heart

Don't just remember good times, but remember all the bad

For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad

But if you must do something, then I have one last request

Forgive me for the wrongs I've done

And with the love that's left

Thank God for my soul's resting, Thank God for I've been blessed,

Thank God for all who loved me

Obituary

A lot of people knew Demario. He touched a lot of hearts. He was sweet at heart. He left a great first impression on EVERYBODY he met. His favorite colors were red and blue. He was a die-hard Clemson and Steelers fan. His favorite character was Spiderman. He loved to argue with his sister, EVEN if he KNEW he was wrong. He would make sure he got his point across and at any means necessary. He loved his niece and nephew. He was not into drinking or doing drugs. Demario brought a bike and rode it like two times. The last time he rode on it, he fell off and came home and said, "Mom I'm not riding that bike NO MORE!" His mother responded with, "You have to get back on it and try again." Demario said, "No thanks, I want to sell it." His mom brought herself a moped and the first thing Demario said was "Mom be careful and don't fall off it like I did with my bike!" From the time he was born even up to now, although he got on her LAST GOOD NERVE; he was still her baby! They argued and stayed at it like oil and fire. Like cats and dogs! But EVERYBODY knew how fast Sharieka would step behind him! Everybody knew how she was coming full force behind her little bro! Nobody could ever remember her name, but she was always called "Demario's sis!" To Demario, she was his "forever bodyguard!" Courage's favorite memory of his uncle was how funny his uncle was with his jokes and pranks. Demario used to scare courage with his fake snakes and bugs. Demario used to let Courage try to beat his high scores on most games but could not succeed.

Demario Belton was born on March 4, 1999, in Lancaster, SC. He was the youngest child of Adam Patterson and Sharon Belton. He departed this life on February 11, 2025. Demario was educated in the public school of Richland County, SC. He was a graduate of Eau Claire High School, Class of 2017. He was baptized at an early age and grew up in the church.

He leaves behind his mother; his sister, Sharieka Belton; his father and bonus family, LaShawn Patterson, of Rock Hill, SC; grandmothers, Louise Belton and Dorothy Patterson, both of Lancaster, SC; uncles, Wilburt Clyburn (Sonji), of Hope Mills, NC, Ricky and Edison Patterson, both of Lancaster, SC; aunts, Trena Belton-Morris (Antonio) and Chemekha Belton, Ellen Patterson, and Delores Patterson, all of Lancaster, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
