

Obituary of Ms. Genette Angela Jenkins Fuller

Ms. Genette Angela Jenkins Fuller, 84, passed away peacefully on February 13, 2025, in Columbia, SC. Born on July 24, 1940, in Catholic Hill, SC, she led a life marked by dedication to her three sons, family, career, and community.

Genette had a long and successful career in the computer field, starting in the 1950s when the industry was in its infancy. She worked for the State of Connecticut for more than 20 years before retiring. In her later years, she was a devoted member of St. John Neumann Catholic Church in Columbia, SC.

Known for her infectious laughter and quick wit, Genette had a wonderful sense of humor that brightened the lives of those around her. Her generous spirit was evident in her constant willingness to help others, often going out of her way to support family and even strangers in need.

Genette grew up in New York, later lived in Connecticut, and spent her retirement years in South Carolina. She enjoyed listening to music, reading, and had a passion for travel, which allowed her to experience different cultures and create lasting memories. Throughout her life, Genette maintained a fondness for Pepsi.

She is survived by her three sons: Chris (Keishawna) Jenkins of SC, David Jenkins of NJ, and Trevor Fuller (Deidre Collins) of CT. Genette also leaves behind four grandchildren: Anthony Jenkins, Nicholas Jenkins, Eric Jenkins, and Nyah Jenkins. She is additionally survived by her two sisters, Rebecca Jenkins-Pallay and Maryann James, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Genette was preceded in death by her parents, Eugene Jenkins and Ethel Jenkins.

God Saw You Getting Tired

*God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*
