Obituary

Elder Flora Renay Fulwood was born December 29, 1956, on Shaw Air Force Base, Sumter, South Carolina. She was the eldest child of the late Deacon Urius Fulwood, Jr. and Deacon Emeritus Dorothy Fulwood. She peacefully entered her eternal rest on Monday, March 31, 2025.

Renay received Christ at the age of seven, and at the age of nine her singing talents were discovered, which she began formal vocal training at the age of 11. Her gift made room for her to perform with Dr. C. Julian Parrish at the governor’s mansion, along with other appearances at college campuses, recitals, political functions, and weddings throughout the years.

Renay was a 1974 graduate of Hillcrest High School, Sumter SC, and continued her educational journey at the University of South Carolina and Columbia College on vocal scholarships.

While completing her studies, she met and wed Mr. Reginald Scott, Sr. This union blessed her with two daughters whom she adored, Regine’ Antonette and Roni DeeRosa. She was also gifted a son, Reginald “Anthony” Scott, Jr.

She shared a special bond with her one-and-only son-in-love, Pastor Jermaine L. Stearns and one of her greatest joys in life was being Nana to Jerni, Jordan, Josiah, and Uryus.

Renay dedicated 25 years to the United States Postal Service as a Postal Clerk. She built many meaningful relationships throughout her career.

She loved life and loved to laugh, but most importantly, she loved God and knew that she was “one of His favorite girls.”

Elder Fulwood was licensed as a minister through the Fire Baptized Holiness Church, in 1989, ordained as an Elder under the leadership of Bishop Deborah Belton, and reconfirmed as an Elder on July 28, 2019, at Victorious Christian Deliverance Center, Hope Mills, NC under the leadership of Pastor Jermaine L. Stearns.

It was her prayer to serve in a local church and the answer to that prayer was Liberty Life Church, Columbia under the spiritual covering of Bishop Tyrone and Co-Pastor Nita Rose, where she was revered as “Elder Mother.” She loved her leaders and church family.

She dedicated her life to prayer and intercession leading her to birth Beautiful Gatekeepers Ministries focusing on training others in intercessory prayer.

In addition to her father, Renay was preceded in death by her brother, Ronnie, and her cherished companion, Mr. Ernest Sumter.

She leaves to cherish her unforgettable memory: daughters, Regine’ Antonette Fulwood-Scott (Columbia, SC) and Roni DeeRosa (Jermaine) Fulwood Stearns (Hope Mills, NC); son, Reginald A. Scott, Jr. (Statesboro, GA); mother, Deacon Emeritus Dorothy M. Fulwood; brother, Dr. Robert (Karen) Fulwood, Sr.; grandchildren, Jerni Lonnell, Jordan Lily, Josiah Levi (Hope Mills, NC) and Uryus Devon (Columbia, SC); her dear aunt Yakita Brunson, with whom she shared a special sisterly bond; two goddaughters, Kearstan Wright and Sarah Cantey-James (both of Columbia, SC); bonus children, Shaunna Clark, Nicole Ashford-Weston, and Raven “Bruh” Springs; spiritual children, Veronica and Erwin Kelly, Regina Burnette, and Sharena and Stephen DeWalt (all of Fayetteville, NC); four sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and friends, who will miss her dearly.

Her Journey Has Just Begun

*Her Journey’s Just Begun
Don’t think of her as gone away,
her journey’s just begun,
Life holds so many facets,
this earth is only one,
Just think of her as resting,
from the sorrows and the tears,
In a place of warmth and comfort,
where there are no days or years,
Think how she must be wishing,
that we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness,
can really pass away,
And think of her as living,
in the hearts of those she touched,
For nothing loved is ever lost,
and she was loved so much.*
