

Obituary

SSGT (Ret) Solomon Glover Jr., affectionately known as “Bubba,” was born September 9, 1958, in St. Matthews, SC, to Rodena and Solomon Glover Sr. He was raised in Norristown, Pennsylvania, where he attended public school and graduated from Norristown High School.

He accepted Christ at an early age, and his faith in God kept him as he journeyed through life.

Solomon enlisted in the United States Air Force on February 21, 1979, beginning his career with the Tactical Fighter Squadron at Homestead Air Force Base in Florida. Over the years, he served with excellence in various leadership roles across the U.S. and overseas, including Louisiana, Ohio, Korea, and Greece.

While stationed in Louisiana, Solomon welcomed one of his greatest joys— his beloved son, Angelo—into the world.

Throughout his service, Solomon was known for his leadership, integrity, and passion for inspiring others. His outstanding service was recognized with numerous awards.

After retiring from the Air Force on March 1, 1999, Solomon returned to South Carolina and began a new chapter as a Correctional Officer at the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center. There, he found not only a meaningful and fulfilling second career but also love—meeting Officer Rosalind, whom he would later marry on March 1, 2001, and gain a daughter, Chrystal.

Solomon had a deep passion for cars and motorcycles, a love for traveling, and found his greatest happiness in spending time with his family and friends. His warm presence, steady strength, and joyful spirit will be remembered by all who knew and loved him. His legacy is one of honor, service, and unwavering commitment.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: his loving wife, Rosalind Bartley Glover; his son, Angelo Glover (Autumn); his bonus daughter, Chrystal Neely (Eric); his grandchildren, Jaiden, Angelo, Kinsey, Khyrie, Kalani, Noah, and Logan; his brother, Shannon Glover (Minerva); his sisters-in-law, Rose Bartley Myers, Mae Bartley, Suzann Bartley, and Pearline Bartley; his brothers-in-law, Willie James Bartley (Cheryl) and Walter Bartley (Johnnie Mae); his seven aunts; his three uncles; and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends who will miss him dearly.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.
