

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary
of
Mrs. Charlotte Washington Mack

Mrs. Charlotte Washington Mack was born in Columbia, South Carolina on April 27, 1946, to the late Lee Washington and Eva Goodwin Washington. She departed this life on her birthday, Sunday, April 27, 2025, to be with her Lord. Accepting Christ at an early age in her life, Charlotte was baptized at the Second Union Baptist Church, Taylors Community.

Charlotte, as she was affectionately known, was educated in the public schools of Richland County. She was a 1966 graduate of Booker T. Washington High School. She devoted 40 years of committed service to Anchor Continental, during which she fulfilled many roles and consistently demonstrated dedication and professionalism.

She was married to the love of her life, William Mack. They were married for 57 years. From the union, they had one beautiful daughter, Veronica Mack. Charlotte was known for her sassy attitude and her ability to make everyone laugh in any situation and bring happiness to those around her.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Lee Washington, Jr., Shirley Ferguson Washington, John Carter Washington, Emma Washington Lawton, Gilbert Washington and William Washington.

Mrs. Charlotte Washington Mack leaves to cherish her precious memory: her devoted loving husband, William Mack; her devoted loving daughter, Veronica Mack; her nieces, Lolita (Reginald) Roberts, Alvenia Lawton, Alfreda Lawton, Shalette (Titus) Rainey, Evita Lawton, Curtis Ann Boston and Patrica Mack; nephews, Norman (Kimberly) Washington, Alfred Lawton and Harold Lykes; special great-nieces, Jade Mickle and Asia K. Bell; first cousin, Corolette Goodwin; dear friends, Mary Washington, Yvonne Stocker, Carolyn Epps, and Joyce Williams; a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, other loving family members and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Memories

We held your hand until the end, and though it broke our heart to let you go, we find peace knowing you are safe in the arms of the Lord. Your love will never leave us, and we feel you in every quiet moment. We will never forget your smile, your strength or the way you loved us so deeply.

Though we are apart, for now, we believe in God’s promise that one day, we will be together again for eternity.
With all our love,
Mack and Ra
