

*For Glenice "Tee Tee" Dyer
In Loving Memory*

She filled her home with joy and grace,
A loving smile on her warm face.

Tee Tee to many, near and far,
A guiding light, a steadfast star.

She held each baby close and dear,
Their little hearts she drew so near.

With every laugh, each tear they cried,
She loved them deeply, far and wide.

Her spirit gave without a pause,
Not for reward, but just because.

Her laughter rang, so full, so free.
A sound that lives in memory

She walked in style, with heart so true,
A beauty that shone straight through.

But her greatest pride, her truest
part, was Jeff and Vaneisha - her heart

A wife, a mother, faithful friend,
A love that never had to end.

Though now she rests, her soul lives on,
In every smile at break of dawn.

So when a child laughs out of the blue,
We know it is just a hug from Tee Tee too.

Obituary

Mrs. Glenice Bivens Dyer was born on October 13, 1962, in Cordele, Georgia, to the late Mrs. Jeanette Battle Bivens and the late Mr. James Bivens, Sr.

She was educated in the public school system and graduated from Crisp County High School in Cordele, Georgia. After high school, she entered the workforce and later became a devoted military spouse to Mr. Jeffrey B. Dyer, who served honorably in the United States Navy for 24 years.

During their time stationed in Jacksonville, Florida, their union was blessed with a daughter, Ms. Vaneisha A. Dyer. Glenice soon began operating her own in-home daycare business—a labor of love she carried with her to every duty station. Her daycare became a home away from home for countless children over more than two decades, and many lovingly called her "T.T." She touched the lives of many families through her nurturing spirit and genuine care.

After Jeffrey’s retirement from the Navy and transition to a civilian role in the federal government, Glenice continued her daycare business until she and Jeffrey decided to retire together. In retirement, they cherished peaceful moments, often sitting in the garage watching the grass grow—enjoying life and each other's company.

Glenice had a passion for shopping and planting flowers. She was such a regular presence in her favorite stores that employees knew her by name. In addition to her love for gardening and bargain hunting, Glenice also enjoyed watching reality TV shows and spending quality time with her family and friends. Her warm personality, infectious laughter, and generous heart left lasting impressions wherever she went.

Her warm personality and generous heart left lasting impressions wherever she went.

On Saturday, May 31, 2025, Glenice’s earthly journey came to a peaceful close. Her memory will forever live in the hearts of those who loved her.

She is survived by her loving and devoted husband, Mr. Jeffrey B. Dyer of Columbia, South Carolina; her cherished daughter, Ms. Vaneisha A. Dyer of Columbia, South Carolina; four loving sisters: Ms. Susie Lee Simmons, Ms. Thelma Bivens, Ms. Delveita L. Bivens, and Mrs. Dianne Singleton, all of Cordele, Georgia; and a beloved niece who was like a sister, Mrs. Stacy (Meka) Brown (Mr. Preston Brown) of Albany, Georgia.

She also leaves behind three devoted brothers: Mr. Jerome Bivens of Albany, Georgia; Reverend Carl S. Bivens of Vienna, Georgia, and Reverend Kenneth Bivens (Mrs. Connie Bivens) of Albany, Georgia; her cherished uncle, Mr. Mid Battle of Titusville, Florida; and three loving goddaughters: Mrs. Iman Edgers Davis (Mr. Bruce Davis), Mrs. Tiffany McQuire Jones (Mr. Anthony Jones), and Ms. Da’Mia C. Watkins, all of Columbia, South Carolina.

Glenice also helped raise and care for many beloved children over the years, including Ava Garland; Alexis, Andy, and Aiden Mack; Christian and Kyra Rhoden; Bryanna and Deon Richardson; Farrah and Dakota Blackmon; Christian King; Elijah, Raylynn, and Phoenix Sims; Aubrey and Alex Rivers; Madeline and Ella Fallaw; Micah Whatley; Carter and Mason Edwards; Dejaa, Carter, and CJ Procter; Cody Bowers; Dax (all of Columbia, South Carolina); and Tyler Simmons of Warner Robbins, Georgia.

She will be fondly remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and many sorrowful and devoted friends.
