MR. MARCUS DEON GREENE

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering
softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the sun;

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Obituary of Mr. Marcus Deon Greene

Mr. Marcus Deon Greene was born in Cheverly, Maryland on September 26, 1979, the middle son of Marilyn Gaskin Humbles (Greene) and Johnnie A. Greene, Sr. Marcus made his transition on Friday, May 9, 2025.

Marcus attended elementary and middle school in Prince Georges County, Maryland. In 1997, he graduated from Emerald High School, in Greenwood, South Carolina. After graduation, Marcus enrolled at Denmark Technical College. Most recently, he enrolled in Harvard University's online Cyber Security Program.

He was married to Alice Johnson and from that marriage came two beautiful daughters, Janiyah Denise Greene and Maya Robin Greene. Marcus was truly a girl dad. He loved and lived for his daughters. Marcus gave up his traveling job as an electrician to be close to home to see his girls grow up. He was super proud of his girl's accomplishments.

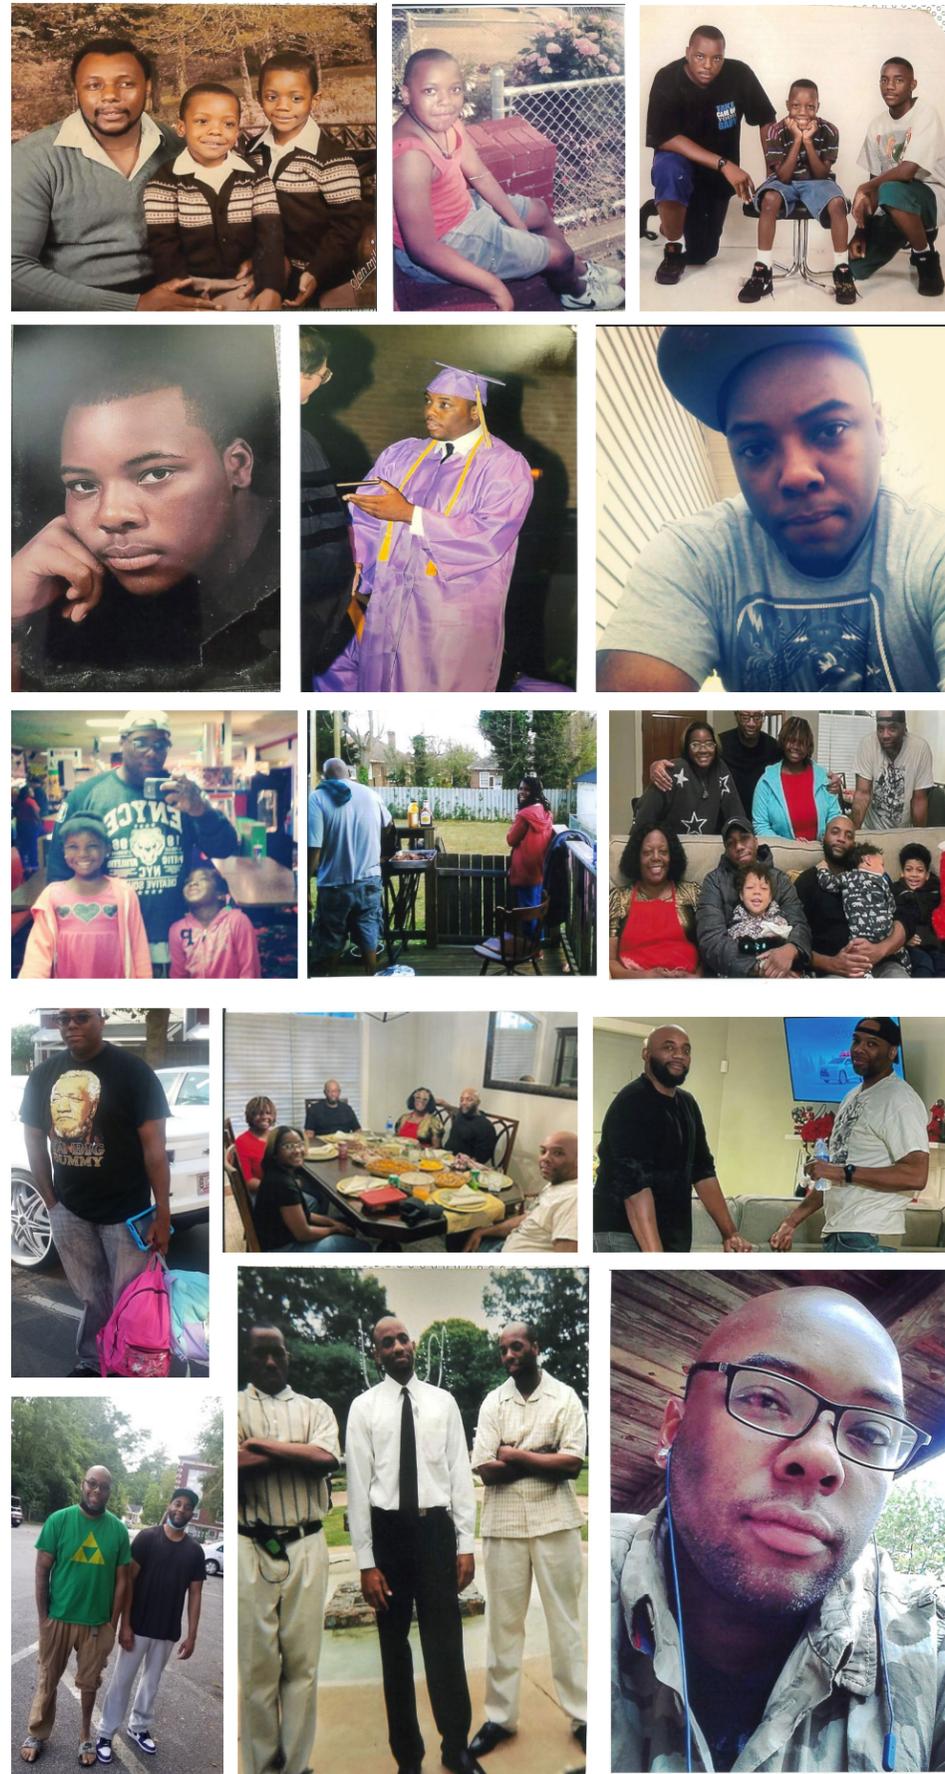

Marcus was very quiet yet quite perceptive. He was lovingly known as the gentle teddy bear. Marcus was a home body, and he could be found playing video games or watching movies. He had a deep love for animation and has a strong passion for drawing. Marcus was very supportive of his family and friends. He found pleasure in being helpful to others.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Harold J. Gaskin; his paternal grandparents, Lawrence Greene, Sr. and Isabel Greene.

Mr. Marcus Deon Greene leaves to cherish his precious memory: his daughters, Janiyah and Maya; his parents, Marilyn Humbles (Robert) and Johnnie A. Greene, Sr.; two brothers, Johnnie A. Greene, Jr. and Jason L. Greene, Sr.; stepbrother, Darrly Humbles (Monica); nephews, Jason L. Green, Jr. and Amir I. Greene; niece, Aria R.
