A WHOLE HEART FULL

Terms like,
"That girl is a hand full"
Or, "Ooh, she's a mess"
Don't quite fit as a description of you.
If I had to attest.

I'd say....
"She's a whole heart full,"
Yeah that would describe you best!
Having a loved-one like you,
Defines being Blessed.

You loved loud, laughed deep, And walked through this world with grace in your scars, And joy in your eyes.

Though you're gone too soon,
You've left no one empty.

You left all of us with full hearts,
When we reminisce about your loving energy!

God's light was always at your side,
You were a prayer in motion, A hug in human form,
A kind soul, that made broken things feel whole.

You've done your part in this Earth.
You've left hearts full everywhere you were ever present.
God's got a place for you with him now.

It's okay to go Lil Sis.
Rest!

Ms. Whitney Latoya Bellinger

Ms. Whitney Latoya Bellinger was born on August 20, 1987, in Columbia, South Carolina. She departed this life on Saturday, May 31, 2025.

Whitney was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina and graduated from Dreher High School, Class of 2006. She had a long tenure at Arby's followed by becoming a supervisor at Envision Food Service, formerly known as Johnson Food Services.

Whitney enjoyed taking road trips, beach stays, and going on cruise vacations. She also enjoyed spending time with family and friends, especially her nieces.

She was preceded in death by her younger cousin, Justin Smith; her uncle, Marion (Cowboy) Spencer; and her great-grand mothers, Luis Bellinger and Lillie B. Pearson.

Ms. Whitney Bellinger leaves to mourn her passing: her mother, Judy Bellinger (Jody Young); father Percy Spencer; brother, Eric (Eliza) Bellinger; nieces Olivia, Eysis, and Amelia Bellinger; nephew, Zhaki Hayes; grandparents, James and Ruth Ann Pearson; grandmother, Mary Spencer, all of Columbia, South Carolina. "Whit-Whit" also leaves behind a host of cousins, aunts, uncles, other loving family members, caring friends and co-workers, all of whom loved and will miss her dearly.
