

Obituary

Mr. Travis Denale Durham, Sr., affectionately known as "Trabo," was born January 12, 1984, in Hopkins, South Carolina. He was the firstborn of three sons to the proud parents, Roosevelt and Stephanie Durham, Sr.

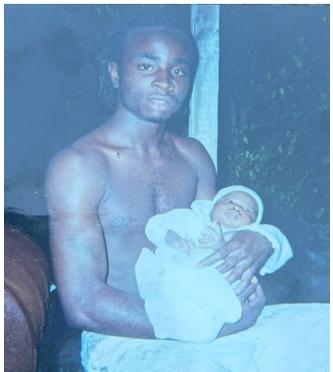

Travis transitioned into the arms of our Heavenly Father on Wednesday, June 18, 2025, at MUSC Hospital. He was a loving son, father, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend, who will be truly missed.

Educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, Travis was a professional painter and loved drywall work. He was an avid fisherman, loved gardening, flowers, and animals.

Travis was preceded in death by his grandparents, John "Jabo" and Bessie Lee Durham, Sr.; grandmother, Ruby Lee Bates; grandfather, Alfred Carlos; uncles, Stacy Carlos, Albert Durham, and John "Squeaky" Durham, Jr.; and aunt, Christina Durham.

Travis leaves to treasure the fond memory of his love and laughter: his children, Travis D. Durham, Jr., Demonta T. Durham, and Tania D. Durham; his parents, Roosevelt and Stephanie Durham, Sr.; brothers, Demetrius (Lakeita) A. Durham and Roosevelt (Chanda) Durham, Jr.; god sister, Shanika Sanders; step-grandfather, George Bates; godmother, Maggie Singleton; uncle-in-law, Webber "Ulysees" Cunningham; special family friend, Tequila Dixon, a host of other loving family and friends.

Postlude

Brother

You gave no one a last farewell,
Nor even said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
A million times, we will miss you.
A million times we will cry.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, we loved you dearly.
In death, we love you still.
In our hearts, you hold a place,
No one can ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
We will meet again someday
I know in a better place.
I thank God He made you our Brother
While you were here on earth.
