

I Made It Home

*I just wanted to let you know
That I made it home.*

*Everything is so pretty here, so white,
so fresh, so new. I wish that you could close your eyes so you could see it too.*

*Please try not to be sad for me.
Try to understand. God is taking care of me. I'm in the shelter of His hand.*

*Here there is no sadness and no
Sorrow and no pain. Here there is No crying and I'll never hurt again.*

*Here it is so peaceful, when
All the angels sing. I really
Have to go for now. I've just Got to try my wings.*

P.S. I'll be the first face you See when you get here!

Obituary of Mr. Henry Bell Greene

Mr. Henry Bell Greene, 75, of West Columbia, South Carolina, passed away peacefully at his home on Thursday, June 19, 2025. A devoted husband, father, brother, and friend, Henry leaves behind a legacy of love, service, and dedication.

Born in Saluda, South Carolina, on February 9, 1950, Henry was the son of the late George Greene and Willie Racheal Henderson. He grew up in Greenwood, SC and carried with him a strong sense of family, service, and a commitment to excellence throughout his life. Henry served his country with honor in the United States Marine Corps during the Vietnam War, a period that shaped much of his character and devotion to his community.

After his time in the service, Henry attended Lander University, where he earned a degree in mathematics. His sharp mind and technical prowess led him to a successful career as a software engineer at the University of South Carolina. He spent years working alongside talented colleagues, contributing to advancements in technology and education.

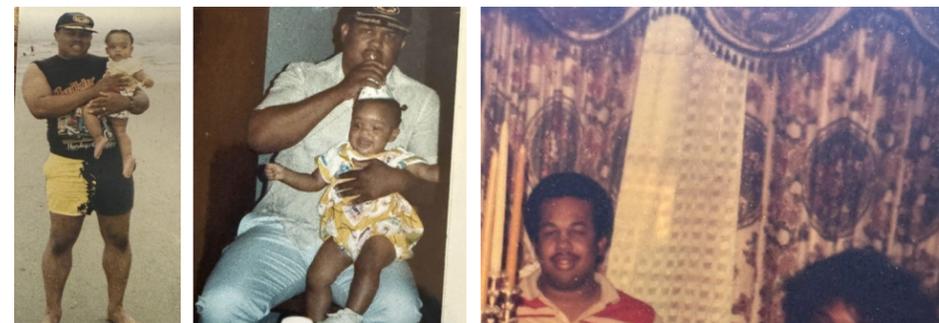

Henry's greatest pride was his family. He is survived by his beloved wife, Patricia Ann Greene; daughter, Taira Greene; siblings, Georgianna Witt (Howard C. Whitted) of Greenwood, SC, Mary Charley (James) of Irmo, SC, Angela Cowins (June) of Irmo, SC, Regina Greene of New York, Andrew Greene (Cindy Greene) of Greenwood, SC, Robert Greene of Greenwood, SC, Austin Greene of New York, Sylvester Greene of New York, and Gregory Greene of New York.

He was preceded in death by his son, Henry Andreas Greene, and his sister, Binnie Jean Jones.

Outside of work, Henry enjoyed the simple pleasures of life. He loved spending time outdoors, particularly fishing, boating, and hunting — activities that brought him joy and peace. Whether on the water or in the woods, he found solace in nature and cherished moments spent with family and friends.

Henry will be deeply missed by all who knew him. His strength, kindness, and unwavering love for his family will forever remain in their hearts.
