

Obituary of Mr. Reginald David Sweet

Mr. Reginald David Sweet was born on August 9, 1966, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Dorothy Peterson. Reginald departed this life on Thursday, June 19, 2025.

Reginald, affectionately known as Reggie, was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He was a graduate of Eau Claire High School. After graduating high school, Reggie relocated to Atlanta, Georgia and attended DeVry Institute. He made Atlanta his home. Reggie returned to live in Columbia with his mother in the latter part of 2012, until her passing in 2015.

Reggie was a beloved family member, a loyal friend, and a beacon of joy and kindness to all who knew him. The highlight of Reggie's life was meeting his daughter, Marie Westmoreland, and knowing that she was raised in a loving and nurturing family. That knowledge brought him deep peace, pride and a sense of fulfillment that stayed with him always.

Reggie will be remembered not only for the love, but the legacy he leaves behind, one of resilience, humility, and enduring faith. His memory will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to have known him.

Mr. Reginald David Sweet is survived: by his loving sister, Cynthia D. Sweet; two nephews, Vanderek Dreher and Tyrice D. McKenzie; one niece, Kenyatta D. Dreher; four great-nephews, and two great-nieces; a host of other loving relatives, co-workers, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Postlude

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand

*The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

But when I walked through Heaven's gate, I felt so much at home

When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne.

*He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you."
Today my life on earth is past, but here it starts anew*

*I promise no tomorrow but today will always last
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time, you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.*
