Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road.
The sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long;
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go
For this is a journey we all must take;
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan –
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Mr. Antonio Ramon Washington was born on June 14, 1982, in Mount Holly, New Jersey. Antonio was a man who truly embodied love. He was the youngest son of the late Willie Washington, Jr. and Sandra L. M. Washington. He departed this earth on Monday, June 16, 2025.

Antonio was educated in the Richland County public school system. He was a renowned barber that did wonders with his scissors and clippers. Antonio was fearless, funny and your favorite uncle, Antonio, Tony, Prize the Honorable Villain (PHV). From rapping the 803 to posting his mixes on YouTube as PHV Mix Master with over 100k subs to hosting his own "Already WON Podcast". Antonio was private, but loved his two daughters, although he wasn't a family man, he gave back through his experiences and counseling others with Podcast.

He lived his life with an open heart, loving without reservation and wholeheartedly. His deepest desire was to see the people he cared about succeed and thrive. He was a man of genuine character, always attentive to everyone and everything around him, making sure to pay close attention to those he loved. His integrity and character were truly one of a kind. Antonio had a unique ability to make a positive impression on everyone he met. He didn't just talk about love; he embodied it.

Antonio was preceded in death by his parents Willie Washington, Jr. and Sandra L. McClinton Washington; grandparents, Issac and Sarah McClinton, Sr.; nephew, King Jonathan Michael Washington; uncle Michael McClinton; aunts, Sarah Diane McClinton and Cynthia Gayle McClinton Daniels.

Mr. Antonio Ramon Washington leaves to mourn his passing: his daughters, Chadirah Washington and Cecilia Washington; brothers, Isaac (Phylis) Washington, of Norfolk Virginia, Jerome Washington, of Columbia, South Carolina, Joshua (Santresia) Washington of Conyers, Georgia, and Roscoe Washington, of Marrow, Georgia; a special friend, Lashunda Baskin of Georgia; five nieces, five nephews, eight great-nieces and nephews; a host of aunts, uncles, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom miss him dearly.

Antonio was, without a doubt, truly one of a kind. His spirit of love, unwavering support for others, and his genuine character will be deeply missed and fondly remembered by all who knew him.
