A Life Well Lived

A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace,
From someone who has made
our world

A brighter, better place
It's filled with moments, sweet and sad

With smiles and sometimes tears,
With friendships formed and good times shared
And laughter through the years.

A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure,
A living, lasting memory
Our grateful hearts will treasure

Tribute to my Late Husband:

Thank you so much for all the love and advice you've given to me for over eight years of marriage. Thank you for the two daughters we have, and they will also miss you. All of my family, your family, extended family members, friends, and church members will dearly miss you, love you, and we will always hold you in our hearts forever.

Love,
Mrs. Vonda Fulton

Obituary of Mr. Craig Lamonte Fulton

Mr. Craig Lamonte Fulton was the youngest son of the late Nathaniel Fulton, Sr., and the late Helen Marie Eutsey Fulton. He was born in Columbia, South Carolina on December 28, 1973. He departed this life in Columbia, South Carolina on July 4, 2025.

Craig was educated in the Richland County Public Schools. He attended E.E. Taylor Elementary School, Saint Andrews Middle School and was a graduate of Columbia High School in 1992. Following his public school education, Craig attended Midlands Technical College. He received his associate's degree in computer science Programming.

Craig worked in brick masonry with his father for several years. He later worked at Bose Corporation, Allied Chemical Corporation, and other manufacturing plants. He later started a career with the United States Postal Service and was employed with them for over twenty years serving as a mail carrier and supervisor.

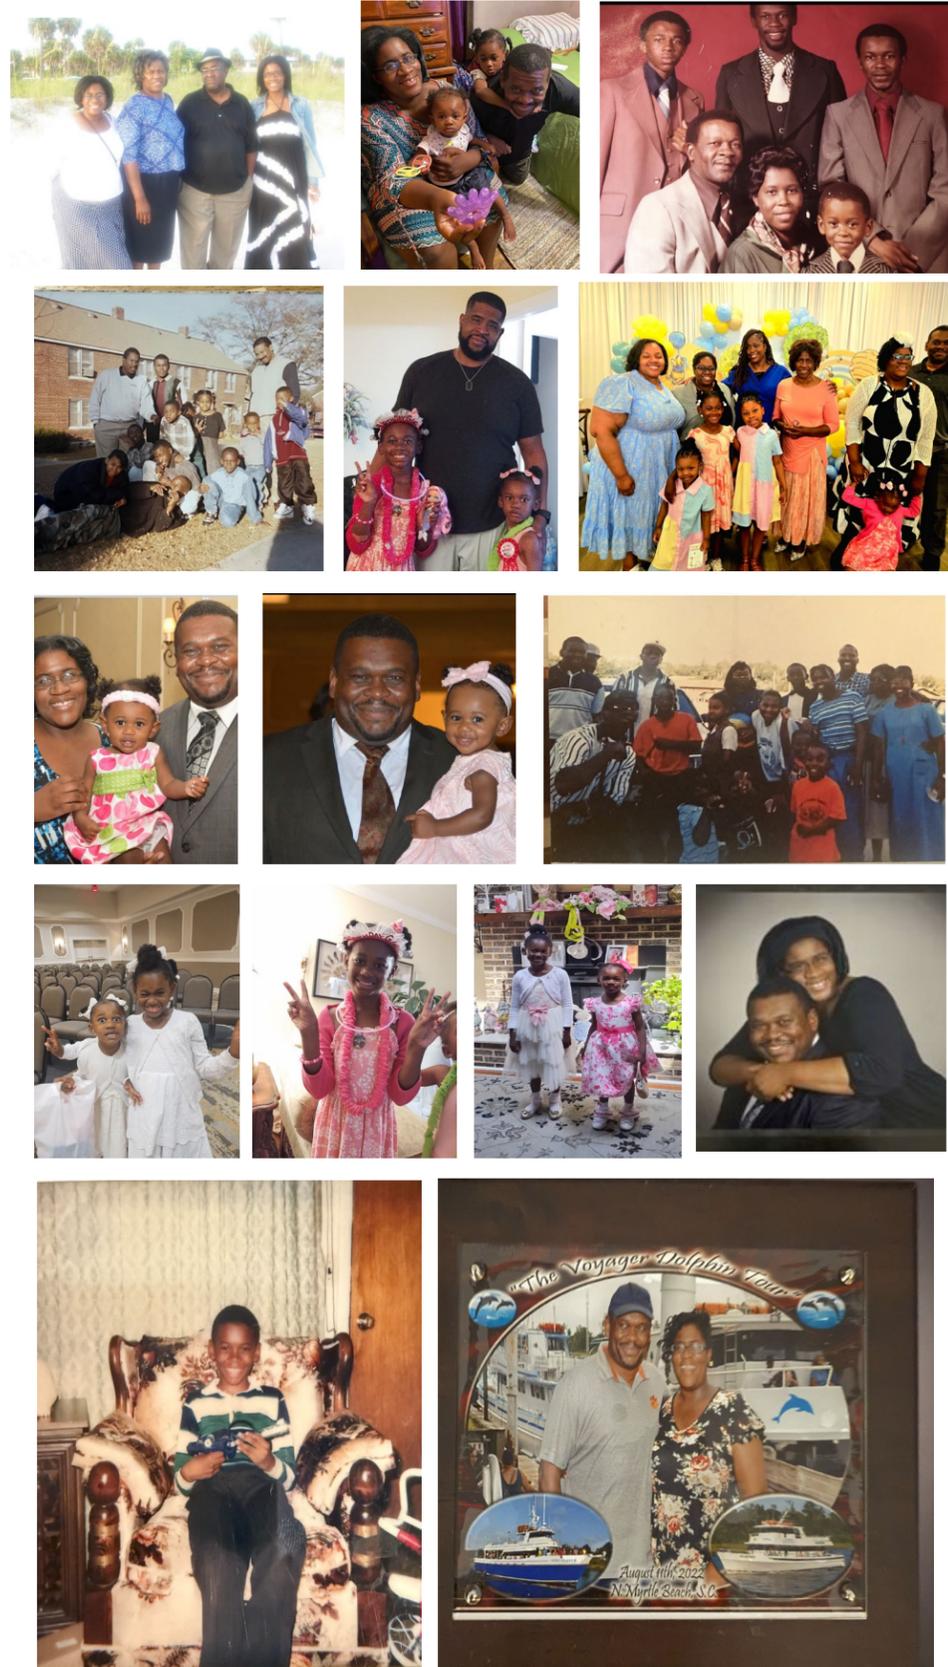

Craig Fulton was a faithful member of the Progressive Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Inc. from childhood. He was obedient and repented of his sins and was baptized in the name of Jesus Christ on October 24, 1984, and received the gift of the Holy Ghost. It was also through the Progressive Church that he met his wife and was united in holy matrimony to Vonda Jackson Fulton on August 13, 2016. This union was blessed with two daughters, Mariah and Chanel.

He was dedicated to the Lord and served his church in many capacities. At a young age he began delivering the Word of God through many exhortations and had a desire to become a minister. Craig sang on several choirs (Youth, Senior, Brotherhood, and National.) He also was a member of the Columbia Youth Ensemble. During his teenage years, Craig served as a Sunday School teacher. He also devoted himself to working with the youth departments: Columbia Youth President, National Youth Board Vice-President and member, and youth teacher.

Craig loved the Lord and everyone he encountered. He was kind, cared about others, and was very outgoing. Craig had a natural gift for making people laugh. He loved his wife and two girls, who were known to be daddy's girls.

Mr. Craig Lamonte Fulton leaves to cherish his loving memory: his wife, Vonda Fulton; his daughters, Mariah and Chanel Fulton; three brothers, Jerome (Cynthia) Fulton, Nathaniel "Rick" (Patsy) Fulton, Jr., and Tyrone Fulton; his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Norward (Gail) Jackson; one sister-in-law, Shanette Jackson; one brother-in-law, Norward "EJ" Jackson, Jr.; a special cousin and sister, Terrilyn (Anthony) Sumter; two aunts, Dorothy Fulton Traylor and Olive Fulton; one uncle, Ray (Thelma) Johnson; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
