A Message to Our Dad

No one was like our dad. He was our biggest inspiration and a true hero to us. He was a rock that never let us down. He always put us first and made sure we were protected no matter what. We will always remember the good times and all the great memories. It's hard to imagine life without him and we will miss him dreadfully. We will hold on to the memories we made forever.

Love Always,
Your two favorite boys,
Dee - Dee and Justin Day-Grant

Obituary of Mr. Korey Ricardo Grant

Mr. Korey Ricardo Grant was born in Barbados on July 1, 1973. He was the son of Beverly Grant and Peter Louis (both natives of Barbados). Korey relocated to the United States from Barbados in 1981.

Korey was educated in the public schools in the state of New York. He attended Winthrop Junior High School and South Shore High School, in Brooklyn, New York. While at South Shore High School, Korey played basketball (his favorite sport) for the Vikings. After graduating high school, Korey attended Mohawk Valley Community College, in Upstate, New York.

After his return from college, Korey moved back to Brooklyn, New York with his mom and sister. A few years later, he moved to South Carolina, which became his new home.

Mr. Korey Ricardo Grant leaves to cherish his precious memory: his sons, DiQuan Day Grant and Justin Day Grant; daughters, Shasa Day and April Day; grandchildren, Jakai and Mason Day; siblings, Shoy Grant and Althia Louis; aunt, Rosemary (Selvin Griffith); uncle, Terry (Maureen) Grant; nephews, Adonis and Amari Grant Muhammad; cousins, Shawn Odle, Karolin Mayfield, Diana and Maurine Welch, Zinzi Olde and Rashida; in-law, Isa Muhammad; best friends, Prince Branch and Junior Cumberbatch; he was also a friend to Michelle Day, Tony St. John, Michael, Diana Neblett, Victor Marshall; many other loving friends and relatives that he leaves behind.
