

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

Obituary of Mrs. Naomi Washington Moore

Mrs. Naomi "Sutta" Washington Moore was born on February 22, 1934 in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late George and Rebecca (Green) Washington. Naomi departed this life peacefully on Thursday, July 3, 2025, at her home.

Naomi was educated in the Richland County Public School System. She was employed by Scovill Manufacturing, in Waterbury, Connecticut for more than 30 years. Naomi was later employed by Saint Mary's Hospital as a CNA, until her retirement in 1998. She was a hard worker, with a passion for caring for the elderly as a home health aid and companion until her health no longer allowed her to work.

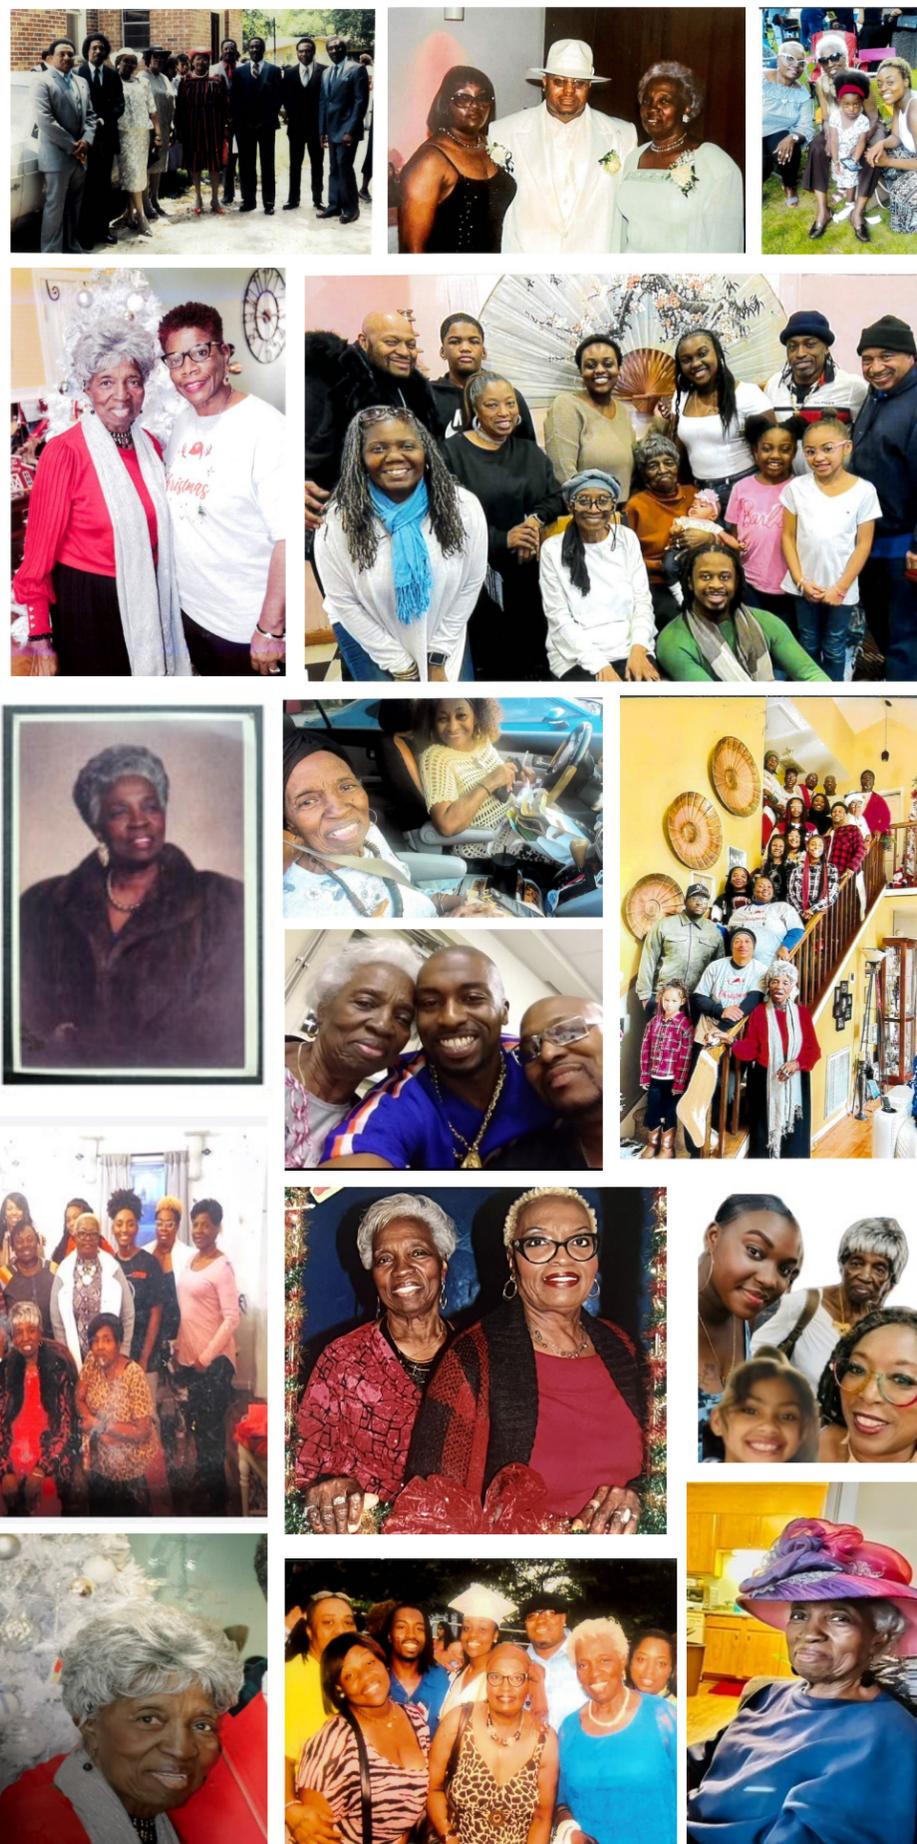

In addition to her parents George and Rebecca Washington, Naomi was preceded in death by her daughters, Mary Moore and Katherine Yates; her siblings, Sarah W. Bruce, Alberta W. Scott, Rebecca Washington, George Washington, Jr., Leroy Washington, Sam Washington, Albert Washington, Eddie Washington, and Charlie Washington.

Naomi was a faithful member of Zion Baptist Church of Waterbury, Connecticut for more than 40 years until she relocated to Columbia, South Carolina where she became a faithful member and Mother of Zion Chapel Baptist Church #2.

Naomi was a lady of great faith; she enjoyed shopping, cooking and caring for others, but most of all she enjoyed rearing her four generations of children and grandchildren.

Mrs. Naomi Washington Moore is survived by her grand children Shawn Moore (Janet), Nasheba Keisha Moore, William B.J. Yates (Latisha), Tawanna Graham-Douglas; eight great-grandchildren, Chrishawn Johnson, DeVonna Moore, Desiree Moore, Deanna Gordon, DeVonti Yates, Jalyn Broadnax, Javon Yates, and Dezure Broadnax; eleven great-great-grandchildren; one brother Joseph Washington (Ethel); three sisters-in-law, Francis Washington, Doris Washington, and Deloris Washington, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
