

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

*When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

*But when I walked through Heaven's gate, I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne.*

*He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you."
Today my life on earth is past, but here it starts anew*

*I promise no tomorrow but today will always last
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time, you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.*

Obituary of Mrs. Amanda Caldwell Tucker

With hearts full of love and gratitude, we celebrate the life of Mrs. Amanda Caldwell Tucker, who peacefully departed this life on Thursday, July 3, 2025. Born on September 6, 1940, in Columbia, South Carolina, Amanda was one of six beloved children of the late Major and Lucille Caldwell.

Amanda's life was a beautiful testament to faith, family, and service. She was educated in the public schools of Richland County and dedicated her life to nurturing others—first through her work with the Richland County School District, and later as a cherished foster grandparent at South Kilbourne Elementary School.

A devoted member of Zion Pilgrim Baptist Church, Amanda served faithfully on the Senior Usher Board for over 60 years. Her unwavering commitment to her church and community was matched only by the love she poured into her family. She was the heart of her home, known for her warm meals, skilled hands at sewing, and peaceful days spent watching game shows. Amanda believed in unity and made it her mission to keep her family close and connected.

In addition to her loving parents, Amanda was preceded in death by her brothers, Elliott Caldwell and Louis Caldwell; and her sisters, Ella Mae (Caesar) Mickens, Sarah (Crawford) Williams, and Ruth Ella (Thurmond) Kenley.

Amanda leaves behind a legacy of love and strength in her husband, Larry D. Tucker; her sons, Anthony (Anna) Caldwell, Stanley Caldwell, Andre Washington, Patrick Washington, and Kenneth (Andrena) Washington, Sr.; her daughters, Sheila (Rodney) Harkness and Teresa (Drew) Colbert; her half-brother, Leo Hinnant; and sisters-in-law, Evelyn Caldwell and Dee Caldwell.

She is also lovingly remembered by a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and many other relatives and friends whose lives she touched deeply.

Amanda's life was a blessing, her memory a treasure. She was loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure.
